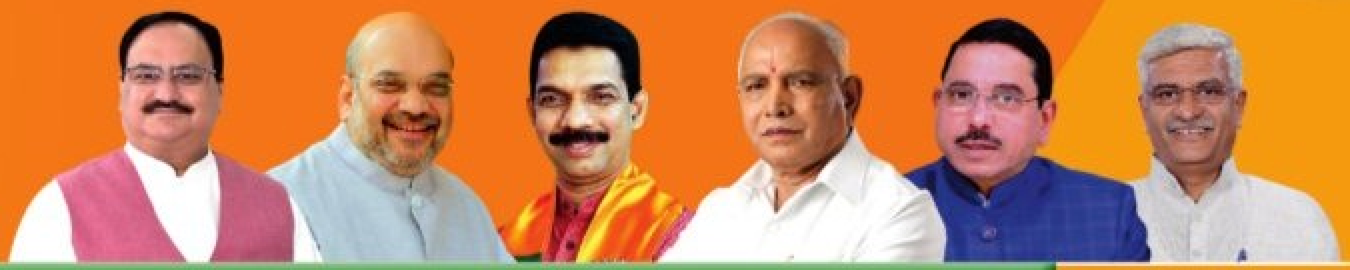
BEIJING HOSP RUNS OUT OF BEDS AS COVID BRINGS MORE SICK

Beijing: Patients, most of them elderly, are lying on stretchers in hallways on oxygen support while sitting in wheelchairs as Covid-19 surges in China's capital Beijing. The Chuiyangliu Hospital in the city's east was packed with newly arrived patients on Thursday. The surge in severely ill people needing hospital care follows China abandonment of its most severe pandemic restrictions last month.

ಮಹದಾಯಿ ಯೋಜನೆ ಅನುಷ್ಠಾನ

ಕಾಂಗ್ರೆಸ್ ಪಕ್ಷದ ಸುಳ್ಳಿನ ಕಂತೆಯ ಅನಾವರಣ

ಭಾರತೀಯ ಜನತಾ ಪಕ್ಷದ ಬದ್ಧತೆಯ ಸತ್ಯದರ್ಶನ



ಮಹದಾಯಿ ಯೋಜನೆಯ ಪ್ರತಿ ಹಂತದಲ್ಲೂ ಇಚ್ಛಾಶಕ್ತಿ ಹಾಗೂ ಬದ್ಧತೆಯನ್ನು ಮೆರೆದ ಪಕ್ಷ ಬಿಜೆಪಿ

- ಮಹದಾಯಿ ಕಣಿವೆ ಅಡಿಯಲ್ಲಿ 1980ರಲ್ಲಿ ಸುಮಾರು 30 ಟಿಎಂಸಿ ನೀರಿನ ಬಳಕೆಗೆ ರಾಜ್ಯವು ಯೋಜನೆಯೊಂದನ್ನು ರೂಪಿಸಿತ್ತು.
- 16.03.1989ರಂದು ರಾಜ್ಯದ ಅಂದಿನ ಮುಖ್ಯಮಂತ್ರಿಗಳಾಗಿದ್ದ ಶ್ರೀ ಎಸ್.ಆರ್. ಬೊಮ್ಮಾಯಿರವರು ಗೋವಾ ರಾಜ್ಯದ ಮುಖ್ಯಮಂತ್ರಿಯವರೊಂದಿಗೆ ಸಭೆಯನ್ನು ನಡೆಸಿ ಈ ಯೋಜನೆ ಕುರಿತು ಪ್ರಸ್ತಾಪಿಸಿದರು. ಇದಕ್ಕೆ ಗೋವಾ ಸರ್ಕಾರವು ಸಕಾರಾತ್ಮಕವಾಗಿ ಸ್ಪಂದಿಸಿತ್ತು.
- 09.10.2006ರಲ್ಲಿ ಸಮ್ಮಿಶ್ರ ಸರ್ಕಾರದ ಅವಧಿಯಲ್ಲಿ ಅರಣ್ಯೇತರ ಪ್ರದೇಶಗಳಲ್ಲಿ ಕಾಮಗಾರಿಗಳನ್ನು ಕೈಗೆತ್ತಿಕೊಳ್ಳಲು ಅನುಮೋದನೆ ನೀಡಿದ್ದು ಭಾರತೀಯ ಜನತಾ ಪಕ್ಷದ ಸಾಧನೆ.

- 2006ರಲ್ಲಿ ಗೋವಾ ಸರ್ಕಾರವು ಮಾನ್ಯ ಸರ್ವೋಚ್ಚ ನ್ಯಾಯಾಲಯದಲ್ಲಿ ದಾವೆ ಹೂಡಿ ಕಳಸಾ ಸಂಪರ್ಕ ಕಾಲುವೆ ನಿರ್ಮಾಣ ಕಾಮಗಾರಿಗಳನ್ನು ತಡೆಯಲು ಪ್ರಯತ್ನಿಸಿದರೂ ಸಹ, ರಾಜ್ಯ ಸರ್ಕಾರವು ಇಚ್ಛಾಶಕ್ತಿಯನ್ನು ಪ್ರದರ್ಶಿಸಿ ತಡೆಯಾಜ್ಞೆ ದೊರೆಯದಂತೆ ನೋಡಿಕೊಂಡಿತು.
- ಗೋವಾ ಸರ್ಕಾರ ಸರ್ಕಾರೇತರ ಸಂಸ್ಥೆಗಳನ್ನು ಬಳಸಿಕೊಂಡು ಪರಿಸರ ತೀರುವಳಿ ನೆಪದಲ್ಲಿ ಸಕ್ಷಮ ಪ್ರಾಧಿಕಾರಕ್ಕೆ ಅನೇಕ ಅರ್ಜಿಗಳನ್ನು ಸಲ್ಲಿಸಿ ಸಂಪರ್ಕ ಕಾಲುವೆಯ ಕಾಮಗಾರಿಗೆ ತಡೆ ಒಡ್ಡಿತು. ಆದರೆ ಇದ್ಯಾವುದನ್ನೂ ಲೆಕ್ಕಿಸದೆ ಅಂದಿನ ಮುಖ್ಯಮಂತ್ರಿ ಶ್ರೀ ಬಿ.ಎಸ್. ಯಡಿಯೂರಪ್ಪ ಹಾಗೂ ಜಲಸಂಪನ್ಮೂಲ ಸಚಿವ ಶ್ರೀ ಬಸವರಾಜ ಬೊಮ್ಮಾಯಿರವರು ಎಲ್ಲಾ ಅರ್ಜಿಗಳ ವಿಲೇವಾರಿಗೆ ಸಕಾರಾತ್ಮಕ ಕ್ರಮ ವಹಿಸಿದರು.
- 2014ರಲ್ಲಿ ಶ್ರೀ ನರೇಂದ್ರ ಮೋದಿ ನೇತೃತ್ವದ ಎನ್‌ಡಿಎ ಸರ್ಕಾರ ನ್ಯಾಯಾಧಿಕರಣಕ್ಕೆ ಅಗತ್ಯ ಮೂಲಸೌಕರ್ಯಗಳನ್ನು ಕಲ್ಪಿಸಿ ನ್ಯಾಯಾಧಿಕರಣದ ವರದಿಯು ನಿಗದಿತ ಕಾಲಾವಧಿಯಲ್ಲಿ ಪ್ರಕಟಿಸುವಲ್ಲಿ ಪ್ರಮುಖ ಪಾತ್ರ ವಹಿಸಿತು.
- ಎನ್‌ಡಿಎ ಸರ್ಕಾರದ ಅವಧಿಯಲ್ಲಿ ಮಹದಾಯಿ ಕಣಿವೆಯಲ್ಲಿ 200 ಟಿಎಂಸಿ ನೀರು ಬಳಕೆಗೆ ಲಭ್ಯವಿದೆ ಎಂದು ಕೇಂದ್ರ ಜಲ ಆಯೋಗ ವರದಿಯಲ್ಲಿ ತಿಳಿಸಿತು. ಆದರೆ ಗೋವಾ ಸರ್ಕಾರ ನೀರಿನ ಲಭ್ಯತೆ ಅತೀ ಕಡಿಮೆ ಇದೆ ಎಂದು ಪ್ರತಿಪಾದಿಸಿತು. ಅತ್ಯಂತ ಪ್ರತಿರೋಧದ ನಡುವೆಯು ಎನ್‌ಡಿಎ ಸರ್ಕಾರದ ಅವಧಿಯಲ್ಲಿ, ನೀಡಿದ ವರದಿಯನ್ನಾಧರಿಸಿ ನೀರಿನ ಲಭ್ಯತೆ 188 ಟಿಎಂಸಿ ಇದೆಯೆಂದು ನ್ಯಾಯಾಧಿಕರಣವು ತೀರ್ಪಿನಲ್ಲಿ ಅಧಿಕೃತಗೊಳಿಸಿತು. ಇದು ಎನ್‌ಡಿಎ ಸರ್ಕಾರದ ಕಾಳಜಿಯನ್ನು ಎತ್ತಿ ಹಿಡಿಯುತ್ತದೆ.
- ಆಗಸ್ಟ್ 2018ರಲ್ಲಿ ಮಹದಾಯಿ ನ್ಯಾಯಾಧಿಕರಣದ ಅಂತಿಮ ತೀರ್ಪು ಪ್ರಕಟಣೆಯಾಯಿತು. 2019ರಲ್ಲಿ ರಾಜ್ಯದಲ್ಲಿ ಬಿಜೆಪಿ ಅಧಿಕಾರ ವಹಿಸಿಕೊಂಡಿತು. ಸತತ ಪ್ರಯತ್ನ ಹಾಗೂ ಅಂದಿನ ಮುಖ್ಯಮಂತ್ರಿಗಳಾಗಿದ್ದ ಶ್ರೀ ಬಿ.ಎಸ್. ಯಡಿಯೂರಪ್ಪನವರ ರಾಜಕೀಯ ಮುತ್ಸದಿತನದ ಕ್ರಮಗಳ ಫಲವಾಗಿ ಅತ್ಯಂತ ಕಡಿಮೆ ಅವಧಿಯಲ್ಲಿಯೇ ಐ–ತೀರ್ಪಿನ ಗೆಜೆಟ್ ಪ್ರಕಟಣೆಗೊಳಿಸುವಲ್ಲಿ ಇತಿಹಾಸ ನಿರ್ಮಿಸಲಾಯಿತು. ಇದು ಶ್ರೀ ನರೇಂದ್ರ ಮೋದಿ ನೇತೃತ್ವದ ಎನ್‌ಡಿಎ ಸರ್ಕಾರ ಹಾಗೂ ರಾಜ್ಯದ ಭಾರತೀಯ ಜನತಾ ಪಕ್ಷದ ಸರ್ಕಾರದ ಮಹತ್ತರ ಸಾಧನೆ ಹಾಗೂ ಕೊಡುಗೆಯಾಗಿರುತ್ತದೆ.
- ಗೆಜೆಟ್ ಪ್ರಕಟಣೆ ನಂತರದಲ್ಲಿ ಯಾವುದೇ ವಿಳಂಬ ಮಾಡದೇ ಭಾರತೀಯ ಜನತಾ ಪಕ್ಷದ ಸರ್ಕಾರ 10.07.2020 ರಂದು ಕಳಸಾ ನಾಲಾ ತಿರುವು ಯೋಜನೆಗೆ ರೂ.885.80 ಕೋಟಿ ಮತ್ತು ಬಂಡೂರಿ ನಾಲಾ ತಿರುವು ಯೋಜನೆಗೆ ರೂ.791.50 ಕೋಟಿ ಮೊತ್ತದ ವಿವರವಾದ ಯೋಜನಾ ವರದಿಗಳಿಗೆ ಆಡಳಿತಾತ್ಮಕ ಅನುಮೋದನೆ ನೀಡಿ ತನ್ನ ಬದ್ಧತೆಯನ್ನು ತೋರಿರುತ್ತದೆ.
- ಬಿಜೆಪಿ ಸರ್ಕಾರವು ಈ ಯೋಜನೆಗಳ ಪೂರ್ವ ಕಾರ್ಯಸಾಧ್ಯತಾ ವರದಿಗಳನ್ನು (Pre-feasibility Report) ಕೇಂದ್ರ ಜಲಆಯೋಗಕ್ಕೆ ಸಲ್ಲಿಸುವಲ್ಲಿ ಮತ್ತು ನವೆಂಬರ್ 2022ರಲ್ಲಿ ಅಗತ್ಯ ತೀರುವಳಿ ಪಡೆಯುವಲ್ಲಿ ತನ್ನ ಬದ್ಧತೆಯನ್ನು ತೋರಿರುತ್ತದೆ.

ಕೇಂದ್ರ ಜಲ ಆಯೋಗದಿಂದ 29.12.2022ರ ಅಧಿಕೃತ ಪತ್ರದಲ್ಲಿ ಕಳಸಾ ಹಾಗೂ ಬಂಡೂರಿ ನಾಲಾ ತಿರುವು ಯೋಜನೆಗಳ DPR (Lift Schemes) ಗಳಿಗೆ ಅಗತ್ಯ ತೀರುವಳಿಗಳನ್ನು ಅತ್ಯಲ್ಪ ಅವಧಿಯಲ್ಲಿ ಪಡೆಯುವ ಮೂಲಕ ರಾಜ್ಯ ಬಿಜೆಪಿ ಸರ್ಕಾರ ರಾಜಕೀಯ ಇಚ್ಛಾಶಕ್ತಿಯನ್ನು ಪ್ರದರ್ಶಿಸಿದೆ.

ಮಹದಾಯಿ ಯೋಜನೆಗೆ ಶೀಘ್ರದಲ್ಲಿಯೇ ಚಾಲನೆ ನೀಡಲು ರಾಜ್ಯದ ಬಿಜೆಪಿ ಸರ್ಕಾರವು ಕಟಿಬದ್ಧವಾಗಿದೆ.

ಮಹದಾಯಿ ಯೋಜನೆಯ ಅನುಷ್ಠಾನದಲ್ಲಿ ಪದೇ ಪದೇ ಎಡವಟ್ಟುಗಳನ್ನು ಮಾಡಿರುವ ಕಾಂಗ್ರೆಸ್ ಪಕ್ಷಕ್ಕೆ ಬಿಜೆಪಿಯ ಬದ್ಧತೆಯನ್ನು ಪ್ರಶ್ನಿಸುವ ಯಾವುದೇ ನೈತಿಕ ಹಕ್ಕಿಲ್ಲ.

- 2000ದಲ್ಲಿ ಮಹದಾಯಿ ಯೋಜನೆಯಡಿ ಕುಡಿಯುವ ನೀರಿನ ಬಳಕೆಯ ಪ್ರಮಾಣವನ್ನು 7.56 ಟಿಎಂಸಿಗೆ ಕಡಿತಗೊಳಿಸಿದ್ದು ಅಂದಿನ ಕಾಂಗ್ರೆಸ್ ಸರ್ಕಾರ.
- 30.04.2002ರಲ್ಲಿ ಕೇಂದ್ರ ಜಲ ಆಯೋಗದಿಂದ ಕಳಸಾ–ಬಂಡೂರಿ ತಿರುವು ಯೋಜನೆಗೆ ಅನುಮೋದನೆ ದೊರಕಿದರೂ ಸಹ, ಕೂಡಲೇ ಯೋಜನೆಗಳಿಗೆ ಅಗತ್ಯ ತೀರುವಳಿ ಪಡೆಯಲು ಯಾವುದೇ ಕ್ರಮ ತೆಗೆದುಕೊಳ್ಳದೇ ಕಾಂಗ್ರೆಸ್ ಸರ್ಕಾರ 5 ತಿಂಗಳು ಕಾಲಹರಣ ಮಾಡಿತು.
- 27–03–2007ರಂದು ಅಂದಿನ ಯುಪಿಎ ಅಧ್ಯಕ್ಷೆ ಶ್ರೀಮತಿ ಸೋನಿಯಾ ಗಾಂಧಿರವರು ಗೋವಾ ರಾಜ್ಯದ ವಿಧಾನಸಭಾ ಚುನಾವಣೆ ಸಂದರ್ಭದಲ್ಲಿ ಮಹದಾಯಿ ಕಣಿವೆಯಿಂದ ಒಂದು ಹನಿ ನೀರನ್ನು ಕರ್ನಾಟಕಕ್ಕೆ ನೀಡುವುದಿಲ್ಲವೆಂದು ಸಾರ್ವಜನಿಕ ಸಮಾರಂಭದಲ್ಲಿ ಘೋಷಿಸಿದರು. ಕರ್ನಾಟಕದ ಯಾವುದೇ ಕಾಂಗ್ರೆಸ್ ನಾಯಕರಿಗೆ ಇದನ್ನು ವಿರೋಧಿಸುವ ತಾಕತ್ತಿರಲಿಲ್ಲ.
- 2010ರಲ್ಲಿ ಯುಪಿಎ ಸರ್ಕಾರವು ಕರ್ನಾಟಕದ ಇಚ್ಛೆಯ ವಿರುದ್ಧವಾಗಿ ಮಹದಾಯಿ ನ್ಯಾಯಾಧಿಕರಣ ರಚಿಸಿ, ಯಾವುದೇ ಸೌಲಭ್ಯಗಳನ್ನು ಒದಗಿಸದೇ, ಕಛೇರಿಗೆ ಸ್ಥಳಾವಕಾಶವನ್ನೂ ನೀಡದೇ ವಿವಾದ ಇತ್ಯರ್ಥವಾಗಲು 2 ವರ್ಷಕ್ಕೂ ಅಧಿಕ ಅವಧಿಯ ಕಾಲಹರಣಕ್ಕೆ ಕಾರಣವಾಯಿತು.
- 2017ರಲ್ಲಿ ಅಧಿಕಾರದಲ್ಲಿದ್ದ ಕಾಂಗ್ರೆಸ್ ಸರ್ಕಾರವು ಕಳಸಾ–ಬಂಡೂರಿ ಹೋರಾಟಗಾರರ ಮೇಲೆ ಹೆಣ್ಣು–ಗಂಡು ಎಂದು ಲೆಕ್ಕಿಸದೆ ಲಾಠಿ ಪ್ರಹಾರ ನಡೆಸಿದ್ದನ್ನು ಜನರು ಮರೆತಿಲ್ಲ.
- ಅಂದಿನ ರಾಜ್ಯ ಕಾಂಗ್ರೆಸ್ ಸರ್ಕಾರದ ತಪ್ಪು ನಿಲುವಿನಿಂದಾಗಿ ಬಿಜೆಪಿಯ ಅಧಿಕಾರಾವಧಿಯಲ್ಲಿ ಪ್ರಾರಂಭಿಸಿ ನಿರ್ಮಿಸಿದ್ದ ಮಹದಾಯಿ–ಮಲಪ್ರಭಾ ಸಂಪರ್ಕ ಕಾಲುವೆಗೆ ತಡೆಗೋಡೆ ಕಟ್ಟಿದ್ದೇ ಕಾಂಗ್ರೆಸ್ ಸರ್ಕಾರದ ಸಾಧನೆ.

Putin announces 36-hour ceasefire in Ukraine

The armistice, coming amid heavy losses for Russia, is to mark the Orthodox Christmas, which falls on January 7. The ceasefire is to run from 12.00 pm (local time) on January 6 till midnight of January 7-8. The announcement come hours after Turkish President Recep Tayyip Erdogan and Russia's spiritual leader Patriarch Kirill, a staunch Putin supporter, called for such a gesture to mark the Orthodox Christmas, celebrated by both Ukrainians and Russians | P14

Govt can't dictate fee for unaided edu institutes: HC

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@Bengaluru

IN a setback to the state government, the Karnataka High Court on Thursday declared as unconstitutional the provisions of the Karnataka Education Act that gives powers to the government to prescribe the manner in which fees are to be levied by private unaided educational institutions. The court also decided to impose penalties up to Rs 10 lakh in case of collection of excess fee than prescribed and to issue direction for a refund of the excess amount.

"Section 2(11) (a) read with Section 48 and Section 124(A) of the Karnataka Education Act are contrary to Article 14 of the Constitution of India and held to be unconstitutional as far as private unaided educational institutions are concerned. Section 5(a) and 112 (a) of Karnataka Education Act is contrary to Articles 14 and 19(a) (g) of the constitution and the law declared by the Supreme Court," said Justice ES Indiresh while pronouncing the order on a batch of petitions. P7

Union Transport Minister Nitin Gadkari inspects Bengaluru-Mysuru Expressway near Ramanagara on Thursday | UDAYASHANKAR S

Zip from Bengaluru to Chennai in just over 2 hrs

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@Bengaluru

FROM March 2024, people can zip from Bengaluru to Chennai in 2 hours 15 minutes at a speed of 120km/hour, Union Transport Minister Nitin Gadkari said on Thursday, after inspecting the progress of the new 8-lane, 262-km Bengaluru-Chennai Expressway at Vadaganahalli, on the outskirts of Bengaluru. Calling the expressway "Pragati ka highway (highway of development)", Gadkari said it is being built at a cost of Rs 16,730 crore and passes through Karnataka, Andhra Pradesh and Tamil Nadu. More than 35% of works are complete.

"It provides direct connectivity between the east and west coasts, reduces logistics cost by 4-6 per cent and also fuel consumption. The new expressway will cut the existing distance between Bengaluru and Chennai from 300km to 263km, and strengthen economic activities in these two metros," he said.

Expressing concern that it is taking several months to get the requisite clearances, especially forest land for the expressway, Gadkari said he will request Chief Minister Basavaraj Bommai to get all the necessary permissions. P4

February deadline for B'luru-Mys expressway

Union Road Transport and Highways Minister Nitin Gadkari has directed officials to pull up their socks and ensure that the Bengaluru-Mysuru 10-lane Expressway is opened for the public by February, ahead of the Assembly election which are scheduled to be held in a few months. The minister undertook an aerial survey of the 170 km road and instructed the contractors and all stakeholders to meet the deadline. The 10-lane expressway is being constructed at a cost of Rs 9,000 crore. P4

TOP foreign universities will now be able to set up their campuses in India, with the University Grants Commission (UGC) on Thursday releasing draft regulations for their establishment and operations in the country, under which they will be able to decide their admission process, fees structure and repatriate funds back home.

Making the announcement, UGC Chairman Prof M Jagadesh Kumar said foreign universities can only offer full-time programmes and mandatorily impart education in offline mode.

"No foreign higher education can set up campuses without the approval of the UGC. Foreign varsities will have to ensure the quality of education imparted at their Indian campuses is on par with their main campus," he added.

Prof Kumar said universities that participate in global rankings would require a place in the top 500 to apply for setting up campuses in India. Those not under such rankings need to be 'highly reputed".

The draft regulations will be notified by January-end, after considering feedback from all the stakeholders.

The regulatory framework will provide an international dimension to higher education, enable Indian students to obtain foreign qualifications at affordable cost, and make India an attractive global study destination, he added.

While these institutions will have the freedom to decide their admission criteria and fee structure, the commission has advised keeping the fees "reasonable and transparent."

He said these institutions should not offer any such study programme that jeopardises national interest or the standards of higher education in India. The Foreign Exchange Management Act of 1999 will govern the repatriation of funds and cross-border movement of funds. The UGC would have the right to inspect the campuses at any time, and all domestic laws, like anti-ragging laws, would apply to them.

HC: Muslim woman entitled to alimony till remarriage

NAMITA BAJPAI @ Lucknow

THE Allahabad High Court on Wednesday ruled that a divorced Muslim woman is entitled to get maintenance from her former husband for the remainder of her life unless she remarries. The court cited Section 3 of the Muslim Women (Protection of Rights on Divorce) Act, 1986 and said that the payment of maintenance is not limited only to the Iddat period, which lasts three months and 13 days from the date of divorce.

The court was ruling on the first appeal filed by Zahida Khatoon, against a Ghazipur family court ruling, which declared that she is entitled to maintenance from her former husband only for Iddat.

Setting aside the family court order, a division bench of the HC said, "from the facts and legal position, we have no hesitation to hold that the principal judge, family court, Ghazipur, has committed a manifest error of law to hold that the appellant is entitled for maintenance only for the period of iddat."

The bench observed that the family court has "misread and misunderstood" the judgment of the SC in the 2001 case of Danial Latifi Vs Union of India, which said a Muslim man is liable to make a reasonable and fair provision for the future of the woman he has divorced, which includes her maintenance as well.

SKYBUS AN OPTION TO DECONGEST CITY, EIGHT ROAD PROJECTS ON ANVIL

Satellite Town Ring Road will help check traffic snarls in B'luru, boost speed of freight movement, says Gadkari

K SHIVA KUMAR @ Ramanagara

ANNOUNCING that eight major ongoing road projects worth more than ₹10,000 crore connecting various parts to Bengaluru will be completed before the 2024 Lok Sabha elections, Union Minister for Highways Nitin Gadkari said the government is also studying a skybus project to decongest Bengaluru.

The ministry has sought a report on the skybus project from a Philippines-based company, along with a viability report that will check congestion and pollution in Bengaluru. A skybus will have a carrying capacity of 200 passengers. Stressing the need to improve public transport, Gadkari said there will be presentations on the proposed project.

He said the logistic park and multi-modal container ports in the city will be shifted to the outskirts, which will decongest traffic to a certain extent. The government is ready to spend money on buying land for the container yard outside the city, he added. Gadkari said the transport ministry is constructing 27 greenfield expressways and access-controlled corridors over 10,000 km at a total cost of ₹4.5 lakh crore, which will improve connectivity and bring economic prosperity to the nation. Of the 27 greenfield corridors, one expressway and two economic corridors pass through Karnataka, he added.

Gadkari said the Bengaluru Satellite Town Ring Road is being constructed under Bharatmala Pariyojana to decongest Bengaluru, boost the speed of freight movement and increase traffic handling capacity. It will link the city suburbs of Hoskote, Devanahalli, Doddaballapur, Ramanagara, Kanakapura and Anekal, and also provide connectivity to the proposed Multi-Modal Logistics Park at Dabaspet and the proposed Pune-Bengaluru Greenfield Expressway.

He revealed that the 342-km Bengaluru-Kadapa-Vijayawada greenfield access-controlled corridor, connecting the two major cities of Karnataka and Andhra Pradesh, is being developed at a total cost of Rs 13,600 crore. It will reduce the distance between the two cities by about 75km and cut travel time by about 5 hours. "The corridor enhances connectivity to existing and upcoming economic and industrial nodes such as Guntur, Kadapa and Koparthy. Bids for 275km of the corridor have been invited," he said.

He revealed that the proposed Pune-Bengaluru 6-lane access-controlled greenfield highway of Bharatmala Phase-2 will be built at a cost of Rs 45,000 crore, and of 700km, 500km will pass through Karnataka and 200km through Maharashtra.

'Amrit Sarovar to rejuvenate groundwater'

UNION Transport Minister Nitin Gadkari also said that wherever there is availability of land parcels of more than three hectares between the road line, it will be converted into Amrut Mahotsav Bird Garden dedicated to birds, and Amrit Sarovar to rejuvenate groundwater levels. "If there is a thick forest along the projected route, we will try to change the alignment," he said, adding that they are exploring the option of building an underpass in the Bannerghatta forest area. Gadkari said they are exploring the option of using segregated waste from Bengaluru in the construction of the Ring Road, as an eco-friendly measure.

Gadkari sets February deadline for much-awaited B'luru-Mys expressway

K SHIVA KUMAR @ Ramanagara

UNION Road Transport and Highways Minister Nitin Gadkari has directed officials to pull up their socks and ensure that the Bengaluru-Mysuru 10-lane Expressway is opened for the public by February, ahead of the Assembly election which are scheduled to be held in a few months. The minister undertook an aerial survey of the 170 km road and instructed the contractors and all stakeholders to meet the deadline.

The 10-lane expressway, being constructed at a cost of Rs 9,000 crore, connects Ramanagara-Mandya-Mysuru and will have 53 km long new bypass roads. Once completed, it is expected to cut travel time to 90 minutes.

The project is of political significance to the ruling BJP in the state, as it has set a target for itself to win maximum seats in the old Mysuru region, a Vokkaliga bastion. Gadkari also inspected work on flyovers and roads near Mandya and Mysuru. Referring to the water logging on the road which is causing hardships to commuters, Gadkari said the country received excess rainfall and the National Highways Authority of India has taken note of the issue and is trying to address it.

He said that the highway, passing through the green stretch through Ramanagara in Mandya district, will emerge as a preferred destination for educational institutes and IT companies to set up their businesses. He said that the technical and design teams are identifying places for putting up signages near accident zones and steep curves to ensure safety of commuters. He said facilities of helipads and air ambulances are also being considered, adding, the NHAI will provide cranes and ambulance services to save people in cases of accidents. The NHAI is also planning to start trauma centres and hospitals on the highway.

Referring to Mandya MP Sumalatha Ambareesh calling the expressway unscientific, he said the MP's concerns will be addressed if she comes out with specific complaints and shortcomings.

When asked about the cost escalation of the project from Rs 4,000 crore to Rs 9,000 crore, Gadkari said that the increase in the number of requests for underpasses from former prime minister HD Deve Gowda, various MPs, MLAs and the general public has contributed to the cost going up.

"We have taken up Rs 50 lakh crore highway works without compromising on quality and maintaining zero corruption. The delay in getting clearances from the environment department and hurdles in land acquisition also add to the cost escalation," he said.

Gadkari brushed aside the issue of naming the Bengaluru-Mysuru Expressway after Nalwadi Krishnaraja Wadiyar by saying that there is no such practice of naming national highways after personalities. He, however, said all request letters will be forwarded to the PMO for further discussion.

₹1,000cr for RUBs, ROBs to ease traffic snarls in state: CM

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Bengaluru

THE Union Government will sanction Rs 1,000 crore to Karnataka to take up railway over bridges (ROBs) and railway under bridges (RUBs) to reduce traffic congestion at various spots across the state, Chief Minister Basavaraj Bommai said on Thursday. The state government will submit its proposal in a week's time, he added.

Bommai was speaking to the media after reviewing work undertaken on highways with Union Transport Minister Nitin Gadkari. He said wherever there is traffic congestion in towns, including Ballari, Mysuru, Mangaluru, Belagavi, Hubballi, ROBs and RUBs will be constructed to ease traffic movement.

On decongesting Bengaluru traffic, Gadkari told the government to prepare a proposal to construct flyovers to connect national highways that pass through Bengaluru. With this, traffic on highways will be directed to these flyovers, avoiding movement inside the city.

Bommai said they discussed various modes of transport as last-mile connectivity from Metro stations, from personal pods to double deckers. An expert team will study this. Work on the Yeshwantpur flyover will also start at the earliest, he said. The Satellite Town Ring Road, being developed by the National Highway Authority of India, will be rerouted to avoid Bannerghatta forest area. The concern of STRR running through Bannerghatta forest was conveyed to the State Wildlife Committee, and an alternative route suggested. "It will be lengthier and cost more, but we will avoid Bannerghatta," Bommai said. They also discussed ring roads at Raichur, Koppal, Gadag and Shivamogga, with work to be taken up this year. The government will start land acquisition, Bommai said, adding that they have decided that instead of investing the state government's share of 50 per cent on these projects, the GST amount to be given to Karnataka can be compensated. It also means that Karnataka need not share its amount.

Inspecting the Bengaluru-Mysuru and Bengaluru-Chennai expressways, Gadkari said he directed the authorities to take up work with speed. At present, national highway works worth Rs 46,840 crore is going on. Bommai said the four-laning of Shiradi Ghat will begin in March. There is a proposal to construct a tunnel for Rs 10,000 crore, but this is a long-term measure.

Vande Bharat gets a thumbs-up, passengers say it's worth the fare

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Bengaluru

PASSENGERS on board the Vande Bharat Express between Bengaluru and Mysuru say they are bowled over by the ambience and the comfort offered in the semi-high speed train. Members of the media from Bengaluru were on Thursday taken on a trip in the train from KSR Bengaluru City Railway Station which commenced from Puratchi Thalaivar Dr MGR Chennai Central Station at 5.50 am. The 138-km trip to Mysuru from KSR Bengaluru started from Platform 7 at 10.23 am and reached Mysuru at 12.10 pm.

Against the complaint from some passengers that the charges are exorbitantly high, those who took the Vande Bharat Express say the experience is worth the fare.

It was a completely chilled-out atmosphere inside the train with some watching movies on their mobile phones, some hooked on to social media and a few others buried in books. Some were even seen using their laptops.

Fida, a quality analyst travelling with her mother, counted the ease of booking and punctuality of the train timings as major pluses. "It is quite affordable as the fare includes snacks too. Cleanliness is maintained and the food served is hygienic," she added.

IIT Madras Prof Sekar C and his wife Deepa were also floored by the experience. "The food is excellent. The journey is better than taking a flight. The fare is justified. It is so spacious and I will recommend it to others," he said.

Another passenger, Divya, whose family has come down from Seattle for a vacation, also took the train. "It is amazing. I went on the Bengaluru-Mysuru route earlier with my late grandfather and wanted my daughter to have the same experience," Divya said.

The 16-coach train with a seating capacity of 1,128 passengers had 586 passengers from Bengaluru to Mysuru (52%) while it was 330 from Mysuru to Bengaluru (30%), said a senior Railways official. "Data assessed for November and December (it was launched on November 11) reveals 100% occupancy on the route between Chennai and Bengaluru. Occupancy dipped to 55% between Bengaluru and Mysuru and to 45% from Mysuru and Bengaluru," the official said.

Vande Bharat Express can reach a maximum speed of 180 kmph. However, the unique display board on every coach shows that the realtime speed has never crossed 100 kmph between Bengaluru and Mysuru. There are over 125 curves, many of which are sharp ones, to prevent faster running of the trains between the two cities.

Additional Divisional Railway Manager, Bengaluru Railway Division, Kusuma Hariprasad, said, "The tracks between Bengaluru and Mysuru have a maximum permissible speed of 100 kmph only. We are looking at the possibility to upgrade the tracks to withstand 110 kmph. Once our technical team submits its report, we have to assess the feasibility and start the work." Between Jolarpettai and Bengaluru, trains run at 110 kmph already and by September, the tracks on that stretch will be able to withstand 130 kmph, she said.

PETER VIDAL

06th January: It's an earthy, practical sort of a day in many ways. If you're starting new projects, then you can take them one step at a time. If you are sticking with existing tasks, go back and check that all details are in place. It's much better to move slowly and achieve success than come first only to find that your plans unravel later.

ARIES
(Mar 21 - Apr. 20)

If anything, your life is now slightly more relaxed than it was only a short time ago. Remembering that astrology is about what you do for yourself, rather than what happens to you, you may find any way you can to pamper yourself and do precisely what you want.

TAURUS
(Apr. 21 - May 21)

Partnership still holds the key to a successful day, so even if you have doubts about linking up with particular people, you should put them to one side. As you know, it takes two to tango. Actually, you might be surprised by the person who offers you the best advice.

GEMINI
(May 22 - June 21)

You may spare a little time to consider your physical well-being, and do yourself a favour by lowering the level of emotional stress. It's not that tension is necessarily any greater than usual, just that this is a useful time to improve your morale.

CANCER
(June 22 - July 23)

Astrologers often fail to realise how adventurous you can be at work, including voluntary tasks, and now is the time to surprise everybody by showing that you have hidden depths and talents that colleagues never even guessed at. You might even hear something to your advantage.

LEO
(July 24 - Aug. 23)

Today's Solar alignments are among the most important of the month. You are likely to experience hold-ups and difficulties, but the result could be to push you into a life that is so much more worthwhile. Plus, there's little that you can't deal with by being perfectly charming.

VIRGO
(Aug. 24 - Sept. 23)

Venus steps up its influence very soon, maintaining a relationship with several planets, including Jupiter, which will help you win friends and influence people who have never been susceptible to your charms. You can therefore afford to feel encouraged about the future!

LIBRA
(Sept. 24 - Oct. 23)

You're at a turning point in both social and romantic affairs, although you may not see the results just yet. The key seems to be a greater desire for commitment, itself born of a need for security. Can you achieve this and maintain your independence? I think you can.

SCORPIO
(Oct. 24 - Nov. 22)

The coming clash of aspirations will be between your private desires on the one hand, and the way you want the world to see you on the other. Try to find a middle way, reconciling family pressures with career and public ambitions. It could be easier than you think.

SAGITTARIUS
(Nov. 23 - Dec. 22)

It's a serious sort of a day, and you'll be in a mood to make long-term commitments. This may mean, of course, that current obligations come under scrutiny, and you might decide you're not pulling your weight. Mind you, the pleasure principle remains strong, so enjoy!

CAPRICORN
(Dec. 23 - Jan. 20)

You may now day-dream and fantasise to your heart's content. The plain fact is that once you start seriously exercising your imagination, you'll begin to see the way forward through some very down-to-earth matters, like the next step in a financial venture.

AQUARIUS
(Jan. 21 - Feb. 19)

Life's not always been easy, but nobody ever promised it would be! There is now a light at the end of one very long tunnel. You'll catch sight of it over the next few days, and even though it will then disappear again, it should help guide you to a successful conclusion and safe destination.

PISCES
(Feb. 20 - Mar 20)

Venus' increasingly emotional status will reinforce your desire to be alone. However, if you do decide to emerge from your shell over the next couple of weeks, you will surprise yourself with your new-found confidence. You never know: you might just create the right impression on the right person!

PWD babu with ₹10.5L held in Vikasa Soudha

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ Bengaluru

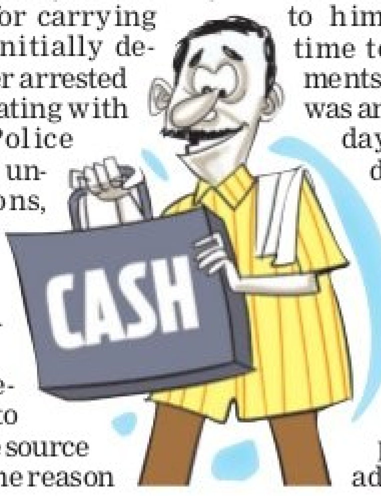
A 52-year-old junior engineer with the Public Works, Ports and Inland Water Transport department was arrested by Vidhana Soudha police after he was found carrying unaccounted cash of Rs 10.5 lakh.

J Jagadeesh was stopped by security staff at the West Gate of Vikasa Soudha, as part of routine frisking of visitors, at 5.50pm Wednesday. On finding the cash, the policemen informed their higher-ups.

As the government employee failed to produce any documents or reason for carrying the cash, police initially detained him and later arrested him for not cooperating with investigations. Police booked him under under various sections, including the Karnataka Police Act. The seized money will be submitted in court.

Jagadeesh declined to respond to questions about the source of the money, and the reason for bringing it to the state legislature. He is from VV Nagar in Mandya.

DCP, Central division, R Srinivas Gowda said Jagadeesh had no answers for the money in his possession. "Rs 10.5lakh was seized from him. He was found with the cash during frisking. He could not account for the money in his possession. An FIR was filed by Vidhana Soudha police. The government employee said he had some work in Mandya and was taking the money there. Since he had some work in Vikasa Soudha, he came with the money here. Notice was first served to him as he sought time to provide documents for the cash. He was arrested on Thursday evening as he did not divulge details about the unaccounted money. The money will be handed over to court. The accused is in custody of the police ," the DCP added.



Firm asked to pay ₹2.3L relief for stem cell loss

YATHIRAJU @ Bengaluru

THE Consumer Commission directed Haryana-based CelluGen Biotech Private Limited to pay total compensation of Rs 2.30 lakh along with a refund of Rs 43,000 with 9 per cent interest pa to a 34-year-old woman, who is a resident of Bilekahalli for the loss of stem cells from the umbilical cord due to non-collection on time, as per the agreement.

The commission said that the opposite parties--Mycord, Cellugen Biotech Private Limited and its directors--did not collect the stem cells of the complainant.

The complainant waited till 11pm on December 18, 2019, and the stem cells were dead after 14 hours of delivery, which disappointed the complainant. "We consider that the complainant is also entitled to damages of Rs 2,00,000," the commission said. The commission comprising president K Shivarama and members KS Raju and Rekha Sayannavar said the complainant is also entitled to Rs 20,000 compensation for the mental agony she suffered and the financial hardship she had to go through, and Rs 10,000 towards litigation charges. Despite notices being served, the opposite parties remained absent.

The relationship manager of Mycord visited the house of the complainant with her colleague and explained the stem cells preservative methods, advantages, disadvantages and its scientific and medical uses in the treatment, in case a member of the family is affected by any health disorder or cancer in future when the stem cells would be used to fight cancer. They assured that the stem cells of the complainant's baby shall be preserved for 99 years, and claimed Rs 50,000.

The commission observed that the opposite parties after receiving the payment have not collected the stem cells and demanded an extra Rs 20,000 for the collection of stem cells of the baby as service charges. It shows their malintention to make unlawful gains and it attracts unfair trade practice as enumerated under Section 2 (47), deficiency of service under Section 2 (11) of the Consumer Protection Act 2019, the commission said.

23-yr-old man dies in police custody, CID to probe

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ Bengaluru

A 23-year-old man died in police custody in the city in the wee hours of Thursday. The deceased is R Vinod, a resident of Jolly Mohalla in Cottonpet. Vinod was facing a Non Bailable Warrant (NBW) in a crime case registered in 2017. He was brought to the Cottonpet police station on Wednesday and had to be produced before a court on Thursday. The accused had jumped bail and not appeared before the court for the last two years.

"Vinod was sleeping inside the cell. Around 3.45 am on Thursday, when the station house officer (SHO) checked on him, he was found to be unconscious and was taken to Victoria Hospital where he was declared dead. We are treating it as a custodial death case. All the procedures as per the National Human Rights Commission (NHRC) will be followed and the case will be handed over to Criminal Investigation Department (CID) of the Karnataka state police," Laxman Nimbargi, DCP (West) said.

The Cottonpet police had registered a case against Vinod on April 21, 2017 for attempt to commit dacoity. He, along with four others, were reportedly arrested when they were planning to rob passersby near the Veterinary Hospital compound on Mysuru Road. The police were on the lookout for Vinod after a court issued three NBWs against him.

"Vinod was under the influence of alcohol when he was brought to the station. He was put in the cell around 7 pm. As per the procedure, the SHO has to check on the accused in the cells every two hours. He is a painter and a native of Tamil Nadu. The postmortem will be conducted at the Victoria Hospital mortuary in the presence of a magistrate," said an officer. A case of custodial death has been registered by the police. Further investigations are on.

NADDA COMES PACKED WITH TIFFIN BOX BAITHAK

DEVARAJ B HIREHALLI @ Tumakuru

BJP national president JP Nadda kickstarted his two-day visit to the state on Thursday, and pitched the 'tiffin box baithak', where party workers from different caste and creed will bring food from their homes and share it with others.

BJP will now go from having food at Dalits' homes to eating together at the party's Shakti Kendra offices to emphasise on equality, which will also enable social engineering.

"The heads at Shakti Kendra will ensure that members of all communities have a representation. Special attention would be given to Dalits. Tiffin box baithak will be organised to show that BJP is not a party of one caste or class," he suggested while addressing the Shakti Kendra pramukhs (heads) meeting of Tumakuru and Madhugiri organisational districts.

Launching a tirade against Congress, he said, "The Congress' mission has been commission, casteism and corruption. But Modi shows the the report card of his achievements while going into polls. In Karnataka, we are going into polls with the report cards of former chief minister BS Yediyurappa and Chief Minister Basavaraj Bommai's government," he asserted.

"Even amid the Ukraine war, under Modi, our economy has remained stable. India has surpassed Britain's economy," he said. Listing the welfare schemes of the central government, Nadda said that free LPG connection under Ujjwala scheme and construction of toilets have reinforced the self-respect of women, and asked party workers to inform public about free Covid-19 vaccines, implementation of the national and state highway projects.

Highlighting the Bommai government's decision to hike the SC/ST quota by seven per cent, bringing different reservation categories for Vokkaligas and Lingayats, he said, "Modi has made a Dalit and a tribal woman the Presidents. He has given a Constitutional status to the backward classes commission," he said. "You should ask why Congress did not confer the Bharat Ratna on Dr BR Ambedkar, and instead defeated him when he contested polls," he said.

'I pity Siddaramaiah'

Hitting out at opposition leader Siddaramaiah for his puppy remark, he said, "I pity Siddaramaiah for his cheap remarks about CM Basavaraj Bommai. He stooped to such low levels," Nadda said. Modi will never do such politics as he is in favour of take other chief ministers of various parties with him on the path to development, he said.

'Cong cheated, betrayed people'

Chitradurga: BJP national president JP Nadda tore into Congress during his 20-minute address to the SC/ST and OBC workers on Thursday, and alleged, "Congress has cheated and betrayed people of the country which has stifled the development of the country over 60 years." Citing a recent IMF report, Nadda said, "The proportion of people living in extreme poverty, which is less than 1%, did not go up despite the pandemic," and attributed the achievement to the central government's for providing food grains under the PM's Garib Kalyan Anna Yojana.

BJP chief goes temple hopping

Tumakuru: BJP president JP Nadda made his maiden visit to the Siddaganga Mutt, one of the prominent Lingayat Mutts in the state on Thursday, and spent an hour as he visited the gadduge of Sri Shivakumara Swamiji. He held discussions with Sri Siddalinga Swamiji and had lunch. He is also scheduled to visit the Madara Channayya Guripith, Sirigere Taralabalu Mutt of Veerashaiva community, the Kanaka Gurupeetha and Valmeeki Gurupeetha. His meeting with the religious heads of Lingayats and Panchamasalis is an effort to take the communities into confidence.

NIA searches six locations, arrests IS operatives from Udupi, S'mogga

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@Mangaluru/Shivamogga

NIA conducted searches in six locations in Dakshina Kannada, Shivamogga, Davanagere and Bengaluru, and arrested two ISIS operatives from Udupi and Shivamogga, on Thursday.

Reshaan Thajuddin Sheikh, a resident of Shanthinagar in Varamballi of Bramhavar in Udupi district, and Huzair Farhan Baig, a resident of Tippu Sultan Nagar in Shivamogga, were arrested. Sheikh was reportedly arrested from a private college near Mangaluru.

Investigations revealed that Reshaan was a close associate and classmate of accused Maaz Muneer, and was radicalised by him. "Reshaan Thajuddin Sheikh and Huzair Farhan Baig received funds from their ISIS handler through crypto-wallets for terror activities of the IS. As part of their designs, they also indulged in arson and targeting of vehicles and other establishments," an official release stated.

The agency, which had arrested two others earlier in the case, seized digital devices and incriminating documents from the houses of the accused and suspects during searches on Thursday.

The case, which was initially registered at Shivamogga Rural police station on September 19 last year, was re-registered by NIA on November 15. Mohammed Shariq, accused in the Mangaluru cooker blast case, was named prime accused in the case filed by Shivamogga police. NIA, which is probing both the cases, is investigating the role of each accused in these cases, which have some common accused and are allegedly linked to ISIS.

Will study report for SC tag to Madivala sect: CM

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@Chitradurga

IN a veiled attack on Congress, Chief Minister Basavaraj Bommai on Thursday questioned the party's silence on the Ethnological Study Report on washermen community (Madivala/Dhobi) conducted by the prof Annapurna on giving Scheduled Caste status to the community.

Addressing the washermen community on 'Kayaka Dina' organised by the Madivala Machideva Gurupeet, he said, "Despite the Congress government receiving the report eight years back, they failed to take any decision."

It was former chief minister BS Yediyurappa who appointed Prof Annapurna for studies on the washermen community, and appointed Shankarappa as MLC, and chairman of the Karnataka State Backward Classes Commission, he said.

Washermen community leader Raghu Koutilya was defeated twice, but he was made the chairman of Mysore Paints and Varnish Ltd and Raju Talluru has been appointed the chairman of the Karnataka Madivala Machideva Development Corporation, he said.

Funds will be released under the Kayaka Yojana in 2023 for technical upgradation of the dhobi ghats, education will be provided to the children of the washermen community, and funds will also be provided to equip them for self-employment, he said. All the dhobi ghats across cities in the state will be mechanised and industrial washing machines will be installed. He assured special assistance to the community in the 2023 budget.

Eight dhobi ghats in Bengaluru have received heavy-duty industrial washing machines, he said.

Bommai said that the government will conduct a detailed study of the report, and while giving reservation to the Madivala community, other communities will not face injustice.

He also promised that the financial aid to Karnataka Madivala Mahcideva Development Corporation will be hiked in 2023. Former chief minister BS Yediyurappa was conferred the Madivala Machideva Award for 2022 in recognition of his contributions for the development of the community.

Dr Basava Machideva Swamiji presided over the programme.

Congress Legislature Party leader Siddaramaiah visits Gokarnanatheshwara Temple in Mangaluru on Thursday | EXPRESS

Siddu defends 'puppy' remark

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@Mangaluru

CONGRESS Legislature Party leader Siddaramaiah on Thursday defended his 'puppy' remark about Chief Minister Basavaraj Bommai, explaining that it is not an unparliamentary word.

Speaking to mediapersons after offering puja at Kudroli Gokarnatheshwara Temple in Mangaluru, he said, "I said the CM should have courage. State's interest is important and he should boldly talk to the Centre and get funds, which has reduced. The 15th Finance Commission recommended Rs 5,495 crore for the state, but they could not bring it. So he should show courage and not be like puppy. What is wrong in it?," he said.

"I am called tagaru (ram) and huliya (tiger) and former chief minister Yediyurappa is called raja huliya. Is that unparliamentary? Their own party party people call him that. I meant he should have courage," he said. On the seizure of Rs 10.5 lakh from a PWD engineer in Vidhana Soudha, Siddaramaiah alleged that it is linked to corruption in the state government.

He refused to react to BJP state chief Nalin Kumar Kateel's statement asking his party workers to focus on 'Love Jihad' and not issues like roads and drainage. Asked whether he is planning to contest from Ullal in Mangaluru, he said he will contest from a constituency chosen by the party high command.

Guj, K'taka situations not same: Ex-DyCM

Chitradurga: The situation of Gujarat is different from Karnataka, where we have definite voters, who will vote for Congress, said former deputy CM Dr G Parameshwara, on Thursday. "We are aware of the AAP and AIMIM's vote share in the state," he said, adding that there might be a 5% variation of votes. However, the digital membership where 72 lakh members registered, mainly youth, will vote for the party, he said. Karnataka have given firm foundation for Congress, and at present, we are eyeing rejuvenation of the party at national-level from Karnataka, he said. He said good governance is key for the state's development.

Court: Submit mobile data of contractor Patil

ENS @ Bengaluru

IN a fresh development in the case involving former RDPR minister KS Eshwarappa, who was facing charges of abetting the suicide of contractor Santhosh Patil from Belagavi, the special court for trial of cases against elected representatives on Thursday directed the investigation officer (IO) to submit the data retrieved from the mobile phones of the deceased contractor and others.

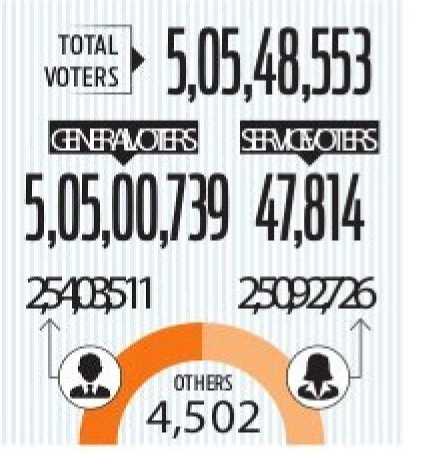
Udupi police had given a clean chit to Eshwarappa, filing a 'B' report (closure report) in July, and Patil's family had approached court, challenging the report. HK Pavan, the advocate representing the complainant, had filed a petition, stating that two mobile phones belonging to Patil, two phones belonging to Vikas, and another phone belonging to Srikanth Giddabasannavar were seized as part of the probe, and were sent to FSL in Madivala.

"In June, FSL had extracted data from these phones and provided the same in hard disks to the IO. But, while submitting the final report ('B' report), the hard disks and data extracted were not submitted to court. It is pertinent that the data extracted from the handsets is vital for unearthing the truth. Unless the data provided by FSL is not brought to the cognisance of court, the truth cannot be ascertained," the advocate stated in the petition.

Allowing the petition, the judge directed the IO to submit the hard disks and adjourned the hearing till January 30.

It may be recalled that Patil, who had written to the PM, claiming to have invested Rs 4 crore on building roads in his village in Belagavi.

5.05cr voters in 221 constituencies, reveals final electoral rolls



EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@Bengaluru

THE final electoral rolls of 221 of the 224 Assembly constituencies in Karnataka were released on Thursday. For the remaining three Assembly segments — Shivajinagar, Chickpet and Mahadevapura in Bengaluru— where the inquiry on alleged voter data theft is on, the rolls will be published on January 15.

As per the details of the Special Summary Revision of the electoral rolls released by Chief Electoral Officer Manoj Kumar Meena on Thursday, the number of voters in Karnataka is 5,05,48,553. As many as 12,31,540 voters have been added and 6,18,965 voters have been deleted from the electoral rolls. In the draft electoral rolls, the total number of voters in 221 segments was 4, 99,34,730.

Bengaluru South constituency has the highest number of voters — 6,50,53 and Sringeri in Chikkamagaluru district the lowest at 1,66,521.

The number of young voters enrolled in final electoral rolls-2023 in comparison with 2023 is 7,01,243. As per the 2011 census, the gender ratio of Karnataka is 973. However, as per the final electoral rolls-2023, the gender ratio is 988. The details are available with the district election officers, electoral registration officers, assistant electoral registration officers and all polling stations.

Electoral Rolls of the Assembly constituencies will also be published on the official website of the Chief Electoral Officer, Karnataka (https://ceo.karnataka.gov.in). People can check whether their names have been included in the list with the correct information and during the "continuous updation period," applications can be submitted online using the portals NVSP, Voter Portal or the Voter Helpline Mobile app.

Young voters

Youngsters who have completed the age of 17 may apply for the inclusion of their names in the electoral rolls. On allegations of voters data theft, Meena said investigation is on and the report will be submitted on January 15 and based on that action will be initiated.

BBMP RELEASES FINAL VOTERS' LIST

BENGALURU: The BBMP released the final voters' list following a process of omission, deletion, and correction, and after consulting parties. As per the final list, there are 82,29,375 voters in 25 Assembly segments of Bengaluru City. BBMP Chief Commissioner Tushar Girinath, mentioned the final list for three Assembly segments, Mahadevapura, Chickpet, and Shivajinagar, where the alleged voter data theft was reported, will be put out on January 15. As per the final report, male voters number 42,65,140, women voters 39,62,712, and others 1,523. Girinath added that around 87 names from the third gender community will be done in a supplementary list.

Minister slams NLSIU for junking domicile quota

ASHWINI M SRIPAD @ Bengaluru

THE Karnataka government slammed National Law School of India University (NLSIU), Bengaluru, for not following the domicile reservation policy, where 25 per cent of seats have to be reserved for Kannadigas. Law Minister JC Madhuswamy has written to the NLSIU vice-chancellor, expressing displeasure over the university not following domicile reservation policy.

In a letter, Madhuswamy said NLSIU, Bengaluru, has not implemented domicile reservation for the last two years and it has been brought to his notice. This has deprived students from Karnataka of seats in NLSIU. "Instead of providing 25 per cent reservation to Kannadigas, NLSIU Bengaluru has compartmentalised reservation and provided 25 per cent to include those selected under AIR. This means NLSIU is grouping even meritorious students who are supposed to be under General category, with domicile reserved students," he said, adding that it is against the spirit of reservation and intent of the NLSUI Amendment Act 2020, that provides 25 per cent reservation of seats to Karnataka students.

The minister said reservation is meant for those who are not selected under General quota, based on All India Rank. General quota students cannot be clubbed with Karnataka domicile reservation category students, who have studied in Karnataka for 10 years. "As law minister, I am disturbed by non-implementation of provisions of the Act, which was passed unanimously by legislature. I urge you to provide 25% to Kannadigas under domicile reservation, excluding those Kannadigas who become eligible based on their All India Rank from the year 2023-24, for which registration for admission has already started," the minister told the vice-chancellor.

Madhuswamy told TNIE it is unfortunate they have not followed the law, and have given 16-17 per cent seats for Kannadigas, depriving other Kannadigas from studying at NLSIU. "Any reservation cannot be clubbed with quota," he added.

Panchamasalis reject 2D reservation

ENS @Belagavi

DESPITE the Bommai government's attempt to silence the Panchamsali Lingayats by creating a new OBC reservation category (2D) for the community in the recent Cabinet meeting in Belagavi, the community leaders headed by Basava Jayamrityunjaya Swamiji and BJP MLA Basangouda Patil Yatnal declared on Thursday that they would reject the new category and insisted on their inclusion only in 2A.

They also set a 24-hour deadline to the government to include them in the 2A category.

"We reject the 2D category. The CM should first clarify whether he will include us in 2A or not within 24 hours," said Basava Jayamrityunjaya Swamiji.

While stating that the government should announce the reservation for Panchamsalis by notifying it in the gazette by January 12, the seer said that the community would stage a protest in front of Bommai's residence in Haveri on January 13 if it was not done. The seer also said a protest involving 30,000-40,000 people would be staged in Haveri.

Meanwhile, MLA Yatnal said, "Bommai had promised us 2A category status. He asks for a report from the Backward Classes Commission and the chairman of the commission avoids taking decisions on the pretext of floods and Covid-19." Ex-MLA Vijayanand Kashappanavar said, "Despite promising the community of 2A reservation, Bommai failed to keep up his words."

Make Golden Chariot viable, CM writes to Rlys

BOSKY KHANNA @ Chikkaballapur

TO break even, reduce ticket fare, run more trips and draw more tourists to the state's luxury express Golden Chariot, Chief Minister Basavaraj Bommai penned a letter to the Railway ministry to reduce haulage charges and return to earlier terms and conditions.

The chief minister, tourism department and IRCTC had written to the Railways around five months ago, just before the Golden Chariot made its trip in November 2022. As per the revised agreement in 2018, the Railways and state were to work out a 50:50 revenue-sharing model and haulage charges. But since the train has been listed under Bharat Gaurav segment, the Railway ministry has hiked haulage charges.

A senior KSTDC official told TNIE that this is the second time Railways has changed haulage charge terms; it was earlier done in 2018, when the train was launched.

IRCTC officials, who are operating the train for Karnataka State Tourism Development Corporation, said, "As per new haulage charge terms, we have to pay around Rs 2 crore per annum as fixed haulage charges, plus around Rs 900 per kilometre per coach, as variable haulage charges to the Railways. If the earlier agreement of 50:50 sharing had continued, we would be paying around Rs 56 lakh as haulage charges. Reduction in charges would make the train more attractive, and reduce ticket cost. At present, it is $4,740 per person for five nights, six days."

The train has 18 coaches, of which 11 are for guests, two are restaurants, one is a bar, two are power cars and one is an Aarogya coach. However, as per norms, a luxury express should have a minimum of 14 coaches. "Had the pandemic not hit and old haulage model continued, the train would be running on break-even model. Surveys have shown that Indians now travel more compared to other countries, and prefer to spend more time in hotels and resorts. And Golden Chariot is a moving hotel," the KSTDC official said.

In the meantime, making the most of the G20 summit to draw more tourists to Karnataka, IRCTC officials are working overtime to woo travellers to India's Golden Triangle on Palace on Wheels. "The Maharaja Express is very popular because of the Golden Triangle and Taj Mahal, but with Hampi being showcased and promoted at the G20, we want to draw more tourists to the train," said Anup Kumar, IRCTC joint general manager. Showcasing the refurbished Golden Chariot, he told TNIE on Thursday that it will make its maiden trip of 2023 in January-end.

Departments were also working on bringing back the old plan of offering the train for weddings, receptions and office trips on short-haul journeys (2nights-3days). Special customised trips can also be drawn up for customers, as per demand.

ADDITION TO CIRCUITS

After IRCTC took over operations, the exteriors are the same -- bright purple and gold -- while the interiors have different hues and themes. With each dynasty, the colour scheme and decor changes. The destinations have also been revised, compared to the previous years. In the Pride of Karnataka circuit with Bandipur, Chikkamagaluru has been added. Similarly, in the Jewels of South circuit, Mahabalipuram has been added and is being promoted, as was done by PM Narendra Modi.

Six die in Belagavi road mishap

ENS @Belagavi

SIX people died on the spot and 16 others were injured after a vehicle in which they were travelling to Yellamma temple at Saundatti, rammed a roadside tree at Chinchanur, Ramdurg taluk late on Wednesday night. Chief Minister Basavaraj Bommai announced a compensation of Rs 5 lakh to the kin of each of the deceased.

The deceased have been identified as Hanumavva S Magadi (25), Deepa Shankar Harijan (32), Savita LM (17), Suprita Shankar Harijan (11), Maruti Yallappa Bannur (42) and Indiravva Fakirappa Siddametri (24), all residents of Ramdurg. The injured have been admitted to the government hospital at Gokak. Superintendent of Police Dr Sanjeev Patil rushed to the spot and conducted an inquiry. Katkol police have registered a case.

According to sources, the victims were travelling from Hulanda village of Ramdurg to Yellamma temple to perform prayers on Wednesday night. The driver lost control over the vehicle at Chichanur and rammed a road-side tree.

Home-alone woman tied up, robbed

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE

A home-alone woman was tied-up, gagged and robbed at her residence in KS Layout police station limits on Tuesday. The victim is Lakshmi (57). Her daughter, Dr Vaishnavi Suresh, had gone to her clinic when four miscreants barged into the house and escaped with valuables worth Rs 7.5 lakh, including Rs 3.5 lakh in cash, and a mobile phone.

Dr Vaishnavi was staying with her mother for the last one month as she was not keeping well. The incident took place around 5 pm on Tuesday. The accused used plaster to gag the victim. They even ransacked the house. Dr Vaishnavi has filed a complaint at the KS Layout police station. Further investigations are on.

IMPORTANT FOR DOCTORS TO MAINTAIN TRUST, SAYS RGUHS V-C

Dr MK Ramesh, Vice-Chancellor, Rajiv Gandhi University of Health Sciences (RGUHS), said on Thursday that doctors should be careful not to turn medicine into a business. Speaking at the inauguration of the 3rd batch of Oxford Medical College's PG course, the RGUHS V-C said that while in the past, doctors were considered gods, as commercialisation occurred, the bond between doctors and patients deteriorated. He added that it is important to maintain trust.

Debate rages on 'only veg menu' at arts fest

Kerala minister suggests including non-veg at school kalolsavams; Netizens discuss change in culinary fare

POOJA NAIR @Kozhikode

Participants have lunch at the State School Kalolsavam on Thursday | E GOKUL

IF past school kalolsavams courted controversy for contentious judging decisions and organisational lapses, among other things, the ongoing edition threatens to leave a bad taste in the mouth for an entirely different reason. The festival in Kozhikode has kicked up a gastronomical storm, with a raging debate over whether non-vegetarian dishes should be added to its menu. And what is adding more spice to the discussion is the fact that the event is happening in the 'culinary capital' of the state.

Responding to demands for expanding the menu, Education Minister V Sivankutty announced on Thursday that non-vegetarian dishes would be included in the festival menu from the next Kalolsavam onwards. He added that the state government has nothing against any food item.

His statement came in response to questions why only vegetarian meals are served at the school fest. Online forums even talked about "brahmanical hegemony" in the kitchen of the festival. Criticism was aimed at suggestions that since Pazhayidom Mohanan Namboothiri, who helms the catering operations, was a Brahmin, he had insisted on serving vegetarian dishes.

Referring to V T Balram's criticism on Wednesday that there is vested interest in the choice of menu at the Kalolsavam, Sivankutty said the Congress leader was sleeping during previous editions when the UDF was in power.

Netizens questioned the years-long practice of serving only vegetarian delicacies during the festival. A Facebook user, known for his alleged leftist liberal views, charged that the "vegetarian only" menu in the festival was part of "vegetarian fundamentalism" and a "reflection of caste belief".

Another wanted all kinds of food, including non-vegetarian dishes, to be served in such festivals organised by the government. However, several FB users harshly criticised the debate as an attempt to give religious colour to food and to create division in the society.

Pazhayidom said, "For more than half a decade I have been serving non-vegetarian food at sports meets and I was never hesitant to take up the job citing my religion or caste. When it comes to serving food, all people are alike for us."

Madras HC junks plea seeking TN Governor's ouster

R SIVAKUMAR @ Chennai

THE Madras High Court on Thursday dismissed a petition that sought disqualification of Tamil Nadu Governor RN Ravi, alleging that he was holding an 'office of profit' as head of Auroville Foundation in Puducherry.

The first bench of Acting Chief Justice T Raja and Justice D Bharatha Chakravarthy said the writ of quo warranto sought by M Kannadasan, Kancheepuram district president of Thanthai Periyar Dravidar Kazhagam, is "not maintainable" since President and Governors are not answerable to courts due to immunity provided to them under Article 361 of the Constitution.

The bench also cited certain judgments of constitutional benches of the Supreme Court and high courts to trash the petition.

The petitioner's case was that Ravi, who assumed charge as Tamil Nadu Governor on September 18, 2021, was appointed as full-time chairperson of Auroville Foundation on October, 6, 2021, by the Union Ministry of Education by exercising powers under Section 11 r/w 12 of the Auroville Foundation Act of 1988.

The office carries a salary, senior advocate S Doraisamy, appearing for the petitioner, said. Quoting Article 158 (2) of the Constitution, he said the governors are barred from holding any other office of profit. Thus Ravi, in contravention of the provisions of the Constitution, had assumed an office of profit by receiving salary and other emoluments from the foundation.

The counsel also said the moment the governor violates Article 158 (2) of the Constitution, he ceases to be the governor. When the bench questioned how the court could order notice to the governor as he is provided with immunity, Doraisamy said the provisions of Article 361 were applicable only with respect to the performance of official duties of a governor or the President. Heading Auroville Foundation is not his official duty, the counsel said.

International Millets Fair: 218 out of 300 stalls already booked

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Bengaluru

IN the run-up to the three-day International Millets and Organic Trade Fair scheduled to be held in Bengaluru from January 20, Karnataka Agriculture Minister BC Patil said that as many as 110 international and national companies have already booked 218 stalls out of the total 300 at Bengaluru's Palace Grounds.

The fair is being organised by the Agriculture Department in collaboration with Karnataka State Agricultural Produce Processing and Export Corporation Limited (KAPPEC) and International Competence Centre For Organic Agriculture (ICCOA).

The minister said that the state government is planning to set up a millet park in Raichur which will give boost to employment opportunities for the people of Kalyan Karnataka region. "Our aim is to bridge the gap between farmers from this sector and customers," said Patil.

The minister said that post-pandemic, people have become more conscious of a healthy lifestyle and are switching to healthier diets for their well-being. "As the world looks for new choices, the ages-old millets and organics are fast emerging as the preferred diet now," said Patil.

Echoing the same, Agriculture Department commissioner B Sharat said that India's focus is now on nutrition security. "There is very less or zero per cent use of pesticides and chemicals in growing millets," said Sharat and added that India has been a world leader in millet production and compared to the rest of the states, Karnataka tops the list

Police with the two brothers and their haul of red sanders, after they were apprehended on Thursday

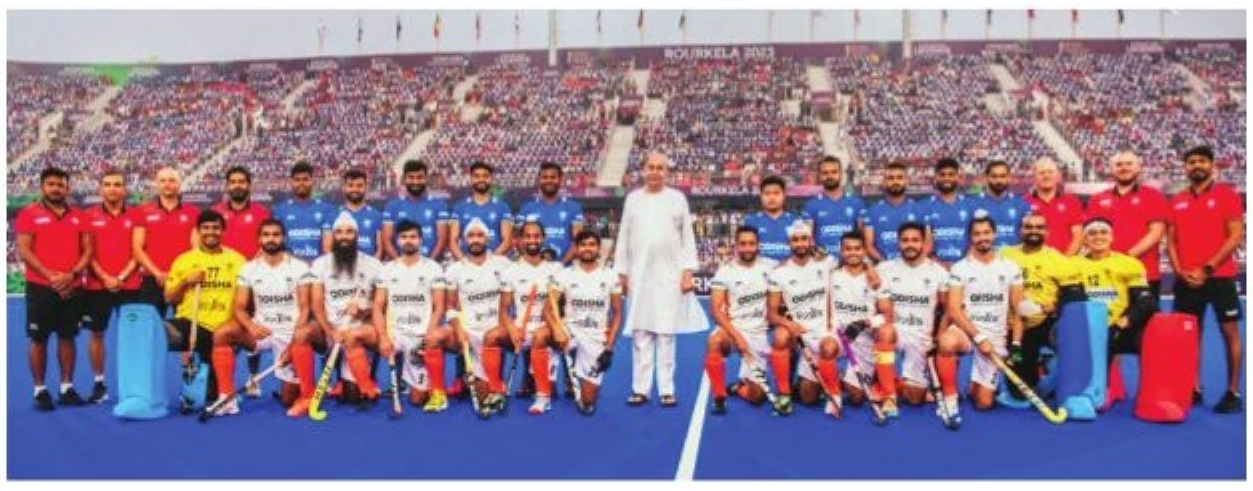
SLEUTHS of the Red Sanders Anti-Smuggling Task Force (RSASTF) arrested two most wanted interstate smugglers during a combing operation at Karakambadi forest beat near Tirupati on Thursday. They seized 31 red sanders logs valued at Rs 20 lakh, six mobile phones and a car.

The smugglers, identified as Sk Champathi Basha (36) and Sk Champathi Zakir (27) of Chapadu Mandal in Kadapa district, are siblings and have been booked in a total of 89 cases so far. Explaining their modus operandi, the police said the accused would sport police uniforms to escape the cops at forest checkposts. The uniforms were recovered during the combing operation.

Speaking to reporters, RSASTF SP K Chakravarthy said Basha and Zakir had been involved in the smuggling of the precious wood for the past six to seven years, and were out on bail.

"The Preventive Detention (PD) Act was invoked against the brothers twice earlier, and they had even been sent to jail," the SP explained. CI Rama Krishna and RI Chiranjeevulu led the task force which conducted combing operations at Mallemadugu, Krishnapuram and Karakambadi forest areas near Yerpedu on Thursday.

"In the Karakambadi forests, the police officers spotted the two smugglers near a car at the Amara Raja unit. RSI Raghavendra, along with his team, then arrested them," the SP said.



Odisha Chief Minister Naveen Patnaik with the Indian hockey team after inaugurating the Birsa Munda Hockey Stadium in Rourkela, ahead of the Hockey World Cup 2023, on Thursday | EXPRESS

Odisha CM inaugurates world's largest hockey stadium in Rourkela

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Rourkela/Bhubaneswar

CHIEF Minister Naveen Patnaik on Thursday inaugurated the world's largest dedicated hockey stadium at Rourkela ahead of the men's FIH Hockey World Cup which begins on January 13.

Built at a cost of over Rs 260 crore in a record 15 months, the Birsa Munda Hockey Stadium (BMHS) boasts of world-class infrastructure and facilities. It has a capacity of hosting over 20,000 spectators.

The stadium will host 20 of the 44 matches of the quadrennial tournament. The other matches will be played at Kalinga Stadium in Bhubaneswar. The chief minister said that it is the most-valued gift of Odisha to the nation. Stating that it is a glory for Odisha, he said that the stadium will be the main centre of international hockey and continue to give opportunities to players from across the world to showcase their talent.

Patnaik also dedicated the World Cup Village, developed at a cost of around Rs 85 crore, on the stadium campus. The complex has all amenities, including a practice pitch, fitness centre, hydrotherapy pool, dressing and changing room and a 225-room residential complex, developed in a record nine months, with plush facilities capable of accommodating 400 players.

The BMHS complex is expected to offer a holistic environment to the participating world cup teams. Taj Group has been roped in by Hockey India to offer hospitality service that reflects the culture of Odisha.

Patnaik said that the efforts of the state government to create a hockey ecosystem will inspire the younger generation to take up the sport. The stadium is the reflection of the government's intention to excel in every field, and would add to Odisha's image in the field of sports infrastructure.

While interacting with the Indian hockey team, he announced Rs 1 crore for each player if the national team goes on to win the trophy.

Two TDP leaders held for Kandukur stampede

ENS @ Nellore

THE police have reportedly taken two TDP leaders into custody, holding them responsible for the stampede at Kandukur in Nellore district. It may be recalled that eight people had died in a stampede during TDP chief N Chandrababu Naidu's roadshow on December 28.

According to sources, the police have detained TDP's Kandukur in-charge Inturi Nageswara Rao and district vice-president Inturi Rajesh in Hyderabad, and they will be brought to Nellore.

Police held the organisers responsible for flouting norms under which permission was given. It may be noted that Guntur Range DIG Trivikram Varma and Nellore Superintendent of Police Ch Vijaya Rao had said that Naidu's public meeting was conducted in a narrow road instead of NTR Circle, where permission was given.

Cases have been registered under various Sections of the IPC and investigation is underway.

Meanwhile, Chittoor police have registered three separate cases against a few other TDP activists.

GOVT OIL MARKETING FIRMS BEHAVED LIKE GOOD CORPORATE CITIZENS: PURI

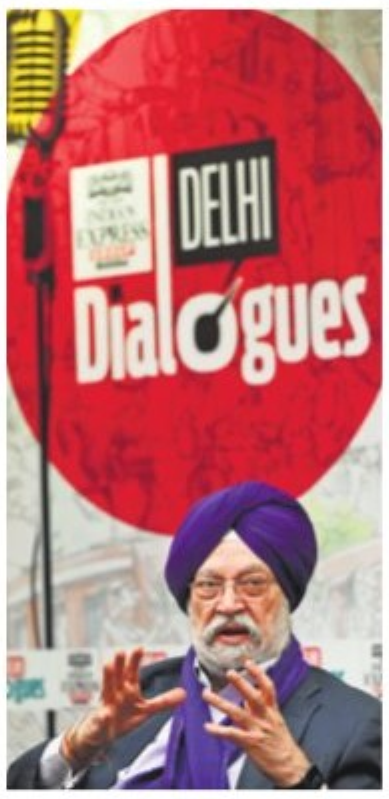
RAKESH KUMAR & DIPAK MONDAL @New Delhi

INDIA has been able to ensure energy security and affordability largely because of the government-owned oil marketing companies (OMCs), which have behaved like good corporate citizens, said Union petroleum minister Hardeep Singh Puri said here on Thursday.

His high praise for the PSU OMCs came at The New Indian Express' Delhi Dialogues event, when he compared the energy situation globally with that of India.

Puri, who is known for his candid views — one remembers his CNN interview where he had said India has no qualms in buying oil from Russia — also dispelled the myth that PSU refiners had failed to take advantage of the cheap Russian oil while private refiners cornered most of it.

He said the PSU OMCs did make high refining margins by buying Russian oil, but sold the oil at a loss in the domestic market, unlike private refiners who exported most of it. As a result, the PSU refiners reported ₹21,000 crore loss in the first half of the financial year, so much so that the government has to give them a relief package of ₹22,000 crore. He added that PSU refiners increased their purchase from Russia to one million barrels a day, as compared to private refiners buying 700,000 barrels a day.



BPCL is a major contributor to our economy. So, there is no plan (to sell it) just now... our experience of the last two years shows it is performing excellently and we need this entity

Hardeep Singh Puri, Union minister

The minister's appreciation for PSU OMCs was also reflected in his views on the proposed disinvestment of Bharat Petroleum Corporation Ltd (BPCL), one of the government-owned refiners. He said: "It is a major contributor to our economy. So, there is no plan (for selling BPCL) just now... our experience of the last two years shows that BPCL is performing excellently and we need this entity." Since BPCL is one of the most successful companies, there is no need for it to be sold, he added.

On the relief package for private fuel retailers, the minister said the companies have sought it. "I hope you know as there are under recoveries ... our OMCs are borrowing the money left, right and centre, we will do our best to cushion them. Talks are going on," informed Puri.

When asked how long the government would levy windfall gains tax on exports of petroleum products, he said that there was a reason for the windfall tax imposed on the oil companies, and it will continue till the objective is achieved. "The government doesn't want any entity, whether it is private or public sector, to get unintended windfall profits," he said.

Man who threatened to bomb police station arrested

SUBHASH CHANDRA N S @ Bhatkal

A person, who allegedly threatened to blast the Bhatkal Town police station in a letter, has been arrested by Chennai police, while a team of Bhatkal police is being dispatched to secure his custody. On December 25, a postcard arrived at the Bhatkal town police station warning that "it will be bombed''. The police became alert considering the sensitivity of the town.

The postcard, according to an official, was written in Urdu and English. "Bhatkal, being a very sensitive place, we decided not to disclose about the letter, but quietly began a probe," he told Express.

The letter read, "Next target Happy New Year 2023. The station will be bombed on January 1, 2023." A similar letter had also reached Chennai police. Getting into action immediately, a Chennai police team arrested him.

The arrest has led to a startling revelation that the culprit had stolen a laptop and had created this bomb scare to divert the attention of the police. "He stole a laptop from a shop and tried to get its Id. When he could not, he wrote a letter using the phone number of the store owner, from where he stole the hardware," the police said.

The Chennai police team used the number and traced the store owner who turned out to be a victim. His number was misused by the miscreant. On further inquiry, the police arrested Hanumanthappa, a resident of Hospet.

The Bhatkal police, according to Additional SP of Uttara Kannada C T Jaykumar, has sought his body warrant to investigate the reason for targeting Bhatkal.

WANING EMPATHY, RISING APATHY: WE ARE TURNING INTO ZOMBIES

THE year 2023 opened with the horror in Delhi, which cannot be missed as a symptom of our degrading moral values and absolute disregard for others' well-being and life itself.

A 20-year-old woman, working with an events company and riding back home after a New Year's event, was rammed by a car with five men. Her body was dragged over several kilometres from Sultanpuri – where the accident took place – to Kanjhawala, a distance of about ten kilometres.

Their arrest is little consolation in the face of the horrendous crime. Despite being aware that they had knocked her down, the accused – said to be under the influence of alcohol – preferred to drive on than check on her well-being. In their statements to the police, they claimed to have assumed that the victim just "got up and left" after the collision and that they realised her body had got stuck to their vehicle's undercarriage when they "felt a drag" after driving a fair distance. Equally shocking is the victim's friend deserting her when she needed her the most.

Delhi Lieutenant Governor V K Saxena reacted through a tweet, saying he was "shocked at the monstrous insensitivity of the perpetrators" and that his "head hangs in shame over the inhuman crime". Delhi Chief Minister Arvind Kejriwal said, "It is a rarest of rare crimes. I don't know where society is heading..." It's time we realised where our society is heading – into a zone where empathy is waning, where apathy and indifference are rising. It is rampant in our country where people fallen by the roadside get no second glances. They are almost always assumed to have fallen drunk and ignored. A lack of empathy within society is far more dangerous than any external threat. Society exists for individuals and groups to help each other. Without empathy, we are just zombies with a singular focus away from mutual well-being.

Author Mitch Albom scores a point here, citing his old professor Morrie Schwartz in his book Tuesdays With Morrie: "So many people walk around with a meaningless life. They seem half-asleep, even when they are doing things they think are important … The way you get meaning into your life is to devote yourself to loving others, devote yourself to your community around you, and devote yourself to creating something that gives you purpose and meaning."

DISTRESSED PANCHAYATS AWAIT OVERDUE FUNDS

IT is ironic that at a time when the Telangana government could rightfully boast of developing villages, scores of gram panchayats are facing a severe fund crunch. The top three high-achiever districts in the four-star category under the Swachh Survekshan Grameen-2023 are from the State – due in large measure to the Palle Pragathi (village development) programme the government launched. Several works such as improvement of greenery, identification of dumping yards, supply of tractors and segregation of waste are taken up under it. Over Rs 4,000 crore has been spent on the programme in the last financial year alone, the government says.

The bleak side speaks of a different story if this is the bright side. In the last few months, there have been several instances of village sarpanches doubling up as watchmen, farm workers and, in a few cases, even ending their lives. They are forced to take loans to pay contractors for development works undertaken in their respective villages. Many gram panchayats are starved of funds but are put under intense pressure to implement various works. The sarpanches, cutting across party lines, accuse the government of not releasing funds for months. If their allegations are true, the government owes anywhere between Rs 10 lakh and Rs 20 lakh to many, if not all, gram panchayats. The Congress and BJP have lost no time in charging the Chandrasekhar Rao government with diverting central funds within hours of being deposited and have called for protests.

The State government, on its part, puts the blame squarely on the shoulders of the Centre for delaying, cutting off and withholding grants. It asserts that it is releasing funds regularly for the local bodies. It claims to have released nearly Rs 10,000 crore to gram panchayats since September 2019. What exactly is happening? As allegations fly thick and fast, truth has become a casualty. It is known that the KCR government is not happy with the Centre directly depositing funds in the accounts of the panchayats, calling it a petty practice. Because, it argues, States have a better idea of how to spend money at the local level. It is a valid point. But, the moot question now is, if neither the State nor the Centre is delaying payments, how come sarpanches are becoming daily wage workers? This is a serious issue that needs to be addressed at the earliest. The blame game can wait.

QUICK TAKE

SECURE SIMPLER AADHAAR UPDATE

Updating the home address on Aadhaar online can't get simpler. Proof of relationship with the Head of Family can validate the new address after the HoF undergoes a quick self-authentication procedure. The UIDAI must, however, clarify how foolproof this is. Hacks and illegal users have proven their ability to access the enrolment system. Cases of duplicate, even fake, Aadhaar cards are galore. An Uzbek national in Odisha was caught with a fake Aadhaar and a fake address a few years ago. The new route is susceptible to breaches; it's easy to access fake relationship certificates once an HoF is compromised.

COLLECTIVE ACTION, ENERGY TRANSITION INDIA'S G20 PRIORITIES

BISWAJIT DHAR

Professor, Centre for Economic Studies and Planning, School of Social Sciences, JNU

MEDICAL

SOURAV ROY

INDIA assumed the presidency of the G-20 on December 1 in the midst of one of the most uncertain periods in human history, with political tensions escalating especially since Russia's invasion of Ukraine, under whose impact the post-pandemic recoveries in most economies have, at best, been choppy. Worse still, these uncertainties could adversely affect the realisation of the Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs) by 2030 unless the major economies in the G-20 can commit to working in tandem to improve the implementation of SDGs.

While unveiling his government's priorities as the leader of the group of the largest and the most powerful countries, PM Narendra Modi underlined the imperative of collective action. India's agenda, he said, would strengthen cooperation and coordination between the G-20 countries by depoliticising the "global supply of food, fertilisers and medical products, so that geopolitical tensions do not lead to humanitarian crises". He argued that the "greatest challenges" humanity faces, including those arising from climate change, "can be solved not by fighting each other, but only by acting together".

This imperative of "acting together" cannot be emphasised more in the engagements of the G-20 countries in two critical areas for humanity. One, the G-20 must collectively address the chronic problems of hunger and food insecurity in developing countries, which requires more resilient and sustainable agriculture and food supply systems. Secondly, G-20 countries must take steps for expedited energy transition, without which one cannot realise the target of preventing the earth's temperature from rising above 1.5°C over the pre-industrial levels.

One of the key objectives of the SDGs is to "end hunger, achieve food security and [provide] improved nutrition". While adopting the SDGs, it was recognised that these objectives could be achieved by ensuring "sustainable food production systems" and implementing "resilient agricultural practices that increase productivity and production". These targets encapsulated the essence of Goal 2, namely, "Zero Hunger" by 2030. However, the Food and Agriculture Organisation has reported that as many as 828 million people were undernourished in 2021, reversing more than a decade's progress in tackling hunger. Russia's invasion of Ukraine dealt another severe blow as wheat supply shortages emerged.

This rising threat posed by food insecurity needs a collective response from the G-20, the countries most equipped to do so, especially due to the rich experiences they can bring to the fore. India is in a unique position to contribute to these efforts, for it has the experience of turning around from being a chronic food-insecure country in the past. The G-20 countries are in a position to respond promptly to growing food insecurity since the grouping has an agreed Food Security and Nutrition Framework (FSN), which seeks to increase responsible investment in food systems that can contribute to the sustainable expansion of the food supply. Besides focusing on the need to introduce structural changes in agriculture, the FSN Framework underlined the importance of "an open, transparent and efficient food and agriculture trade that allows developing countries to consider their policy space, subject to WTO rules and obligations" that can help boost sustainable agricultural growth and increase diversity and resilience of a country's food supply while reducing the cost of food and excessive food price volatility.

The advantage of the Indian presidency is that it can build upon the important decisions taken by the past two presidencies to reform agricultural trade. The Matera Declaration during the Italian presidency had called for an "open, transparent, predictable and non-discriminatory multilateral trading system, consistent with [WTO] rules", while at the conclusion of the Bali Summit in 2022, the Leaders Declaration reiterated their "support for open, transparent, inclusive, predictable, and non-discriminatory, rules-based agricultural trade based on WTO rules". The Bali Declaration is especially significant as Indonesia, along with its developing country partners like India, has been trying to force changes in WTO rules, particularly those related to farm subsidies granted by several advanced countries to provide better equity in the markets for agricultural products can be ensured.

In this context, it is essential to recognise that re-purposing farm subsidies is vital for developing resilient and sustainable agricultural systems. Thus, subsidies that can help in realising the target set by the G-20 Leaders in Bali, of "sustained supply, in part based on local food sources, as well as diversified production of food" that can protect the "vulnerable from the disruptions in food trade supply chain" should be encouraged. This is an outcome that the Indian presidency must seek to realise.

Energy transitions have emerged as a key component of the global responses to climate change, identified by PM Modi as one of the greatest challenges for the global community. Central to undertaking meaningful energy transitions would be the ability of the G-20 members to show directions on reducing their continued dependence on fossil fuels.

In the recently concluded G-20 Summit under Indonesia's presidency in Bali, the leaders endorsed the Bali Energy Transitions Roadmap through to 2030 (the 'Bali Roadmap'), which would reflect on national circumstances, needs and priorities of G-20 members in their low emission transition pathways towards net zero emissions. The first element of the Bali Roadmap is the 'Bali Compact', a set of inclusive voluntary principles for both members and non-members that could ensure smooth and effective energy transitions per national circumstances and priorities.

India could play a vital role in stimulating a speedy energy transition as it has set for itself an ambitious target for moving towards clean energy power generation to reduce its carbon footprint. The government expects that the country will have 50% cumulative electric power installed capacity from non-fossil fuel-based energy resources and reduce the emissions intensity of its GDP by 45% by 2030, compared to 2005 levels. With the Bali Roadmap setting the framework for effective energy transitions and India's commitment in this area, engagements between the G-20 countries could result in meaningful outcomes during the Indian Presidency.

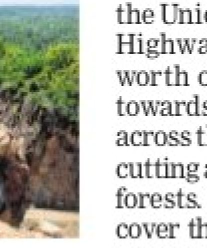
GLOBAL CLIMATE CHANGE: REALITY CHECK FOR INDIA



MADHAV GADGIL

Ecologist, academic and author

CLIMATE change is landing blow after blow upon humanity and the planet, an onslaught that will only intensify in the coming years even if the world begins to bring down greenhouse gas emissions. That is the clear message of UNEP's Adaptation Gap Report 2022: the world must urgently increase efforts to adapt to these impacts of climate change. India is already experiencing manifold impacts. It is steadily getting warmer, and the country's average temperature is expected to rise by 4.4 degrees Celsius by 2100. There is a slow but steady decline in the total quantum of rainfall, while intense rainfall events accompanied by floods and landslides are frequently increasing. The sea level is rising, and more and more supercyclones are hitting the west coast. The melting of glaciers in the Himalayas threatens to dry up the Gangetic plains.

That is the reality of climate change, but what are the world's leaders, including our own country doing? The young Swedish climate activist Greta Thunberg sums up the situation in her inimitable fashion. As she asserts, they are not going beyond blah, blah, blah. She says we are sacrificing our civilisation for a tiny number of people's opportunity to continue making enormous amounts of money. We are about to sacrifice the biosphere so that rich people in countries like Sweden (and our India) can live in luxury. But it is the sufferings of the many which pay for the luxuries of the few. We can no longer let the people in power decide what hope is. Hope is not blah, blah, blah. Hope is telling the truth. Hope is taking action. Hope always comes from the people.

We have an excellent example of the hope coming from the people of Kerala, the state that has made remarkable advances in making India's democracy meaningful. In 2008 Maju Puthenkandam as the president of Kadanad panchayat, set up the Biodiversity Management Committee that involved experts and volunteers in all 13 wards of the Panchayat and by pooling together information from farmers and other members of the community, prepared the People's Biodiversity Register. This document noted that the quarrying of rocks in the biodiversity-rich Perumkunnu hills was detrimental to it and should be halted. Kadanad BMC requested Kerala State Biodiversity Board to appoint experts to assess the environmental impacts of quarrying and crusher unit; KSBDB duly did so on 24.12.2011. The Kerala High Court examined this case in 2012 and upheld the Kadanad GP's decision not to allow quarrying as it was based on solid evidence. The vested interests then swung into action and convinced the Panchayat that their resolution would only bring the area under the stranglehold of a tyrannical Forest Department and that they would suffer more in its grip than because of the quarry. Worried, the Panchayat rescinded the resolution. Regretfully, the Forest Department serves as the country's crony capitalism tool to turn the common people against environmental protection.

We are about to sacrifice the biosphere so that rich people can live in luxury. But it is the sufferings of the many which pay for the luxuries of the few

But this has extracted its price. Kerala's Idukki and Kottayam districts reported intense rainfall and major landslides around October 16, 2021. Eleven people died in Idukki and 14 in Kottayam; the worst to suffer was Koottickal in Kottayam, close to Kadanad, where people have been agitating for over a decade to stop the operation of rock quarries. The quarries kept operating even during torrential rains on the day of the disaster; sounds of explosions from the quarries could be heard all through the disaster. Although only three quarries are mentioned in the official data, such deception is exposed in today's knowledge age, and more than 17 were spotted in the satellite image. As many as 5924 quarries continue functioning in Kerala despite such calamities. The government approved 223 new quarries after the 2018 Kerala floods. This is going on, although it is well established that there is a close link between hard rock quarrying and slope failures in the form of landslides.

Take the example of Goa which for centuries retained its green mantle thanks to the tradition of village community-based gaonkaris. The government is now taking power away from the people to support the enterprises of India's superrich. The Union Ministry of Shipping is backing a project, despite strong objections from the Pollution Control Board, to deepen the Marmugoa port channel to enable the docking of larger cargo vessels to serve the coal berths operated by the triumvirate of Ambanis, Adanis, and Agarwals (Vedanta). Outside the port, the Union Ministry of Road Transport and Highways supports nearly Rs 1,000 crore worth of road projects. These are geared towards linking the port with Karnataka across the Western Ghats to transport coal, cutting a swathe through Goa's villages and forests. The extensive destruction of tree cover that this entails includes the cutting through of Mollem National Park by a railway line. The people of Goa are protesting and going to court to save Mollem while the foresters enthusiastically participate in cutting the trees. At the Glasgow summit, our government loftily talked about equity and chanted the mantra of LIFE- Lifestyle for Environment to combat climate change. It emphasised that Lifestyle for Environment must be taken forward as a campaign to make it a mass movement of Environment Conscious Lifestyles. India emphasised that the world needs mindful and deliberate utilisation instead of mindless and destructive consumption.

Then what of these quarries that the people of Kadanad and Koottickal are protesting? And what coal berths are the people of Goa crying hoarse against? They manifest crony capitalism, an economic system in which businesses thrive not as a result of risk but rather as a return on money amassed through a nexus between a business class and the political class. Under this system, inequity is growing to support the opulent lifestyle of a minority of our citizens. The climate crisis is worsening by promoting the burning of coal, accelerating deforestation, creating local heat islands, and adding to the aerosol load of the atmosphere. Indeed, a reality check is urgently needed, and it is the common people of India who will force this reality check.

This is with reference to the report, "Another Big B advert in eye of a storm"(Jan 5).What is wrong in Amitabh Bachchan acting in an advertisement of Britannia Milk Bikis for promoting a biscuit brand because it is an unhealthy product? Actors need not necessarily be aware of any hidden evils in the products unless it is about injurious stuff like liquor and cigarettes. Stampede deaths

Human life should be protected at any cost. The repeated stampedes leaving scores of people dead in two meetings in a row by the main opposition party in AP have rightly made the government to bring regulation for conducting public meetings. All parties should take it in the right spirit and avert such disasters.

Apropos of Morality of Cherian's re -entry into Cabinet (January 5). The CPM has done a gross mistake by reinducting Cherian into the cabinet. Every political party has its own share of Cherians to condemn the constitution with the sole purpose of seeking some short-lived limelight. Why should Cherian use a profane word to describe a supreme and sacred text?

Freebie time

Many states face elections this year and political parties have started talking about freebies again to attract the voters. Parties should realise government funds are collected through taxes from people to spend judiciously and not for appeasing voters through irrational means. I request EC to scrutinise manifestoes for freebie promises to avoid parties trying to influence voters.

‘Can’t uproot 50K people overnight’

SC order brings relief to hundreds of residents in Haldwani, U’khand, hearing on February 7

SHRUTI KAKKAR @ New Delhi

IN a relief for some 50,000 people who have encroached on a vast stretch of railway land in Uttarakhand’s Haldwani, the Supreme Court on Thursday observed that there cannot be uprooting of the people overnight within seven days. The apex court stayed the Uttarakhand High Court order directing the authorities to remove encroachment from the railway land.

A Supreme Court bench of justices SK Kaul and AS Oka said a humane angle was involved in the case, and that the state government as well as the railways should work out an arrangement that could help rehabilitate the people and meet the requirements of the railways.

The bench also said that the documents of the occupants have to be examined as many of them purchased the land through auction. “There is a human angle to the problem… these are people. Something will have to be worked out. Some scheme will have to be found out for rehabilitation,” said Justice Kaul. “What is troubling us is, first, how do you deal with a scenario where people may have purchased land in auction after 1947? You can expand the railway line of course. Second is people have been living for four-five decades, some rehabilitation scheme will have to be put in place.”

The bench also expressed its displeasure over the HC order to deploy paramilitary forces for removing the people living there for decades. “The moot point to be considered would be whether the complete land is to vest in railways or if the state is claiming a part of it. Apart from that, there are issues of occupants claiming rights on the land as there are claims of auction purchases,” the bench noted in the order. The court also issued notice to the state government and posted the pleas for February 7.

The bench restrained further occupation and development/construction on the land.

The observations were made while considering pleas filed by residents against Uttarakhand HC’s December 12, 2022 order. The HC, while ordering for removal of encroachment spread across 29-acre railway land in Banbhoolpura area, granted encroachers one week time to vacate it. ASG Aishwarya Bhati submitted that the state and the railways were on the same page with regard to the authority to whom the land belonged. Apprising the bench of several orders under the Public Premises Act, she said due process was followed and the eviction did not take place overnight.

For the residents, senior advocates Siddharth Luthra and Colin Gonsalves argued that in some cases possession of the land had been with the family of the residents prior to Independence while in others, the government had executed the lease in their favour.

The pleas which were filed by the residents had argued that thousands of persons affected by the contested eviction orders were also suffering another unjust consequence of the HC order. The pleas stated that names of local residents were entered in the municipal records of the house tax register and that they have been paying house tax regularly for years. Residents had further stated that their ancestors had long settled the physical possession; some even prior to the date of India’s independence, the facts recognised by the State and its agencies. “We do believe a workable arrangement is necessary. People may have no rights on the land, they may have to be removed, coupled with schemes of rehabilitation, while recognising the needs of the railways,” said the bench.

‘Parole not to be part of sentence’

The top court was hearing an appeal filed by some convicts undergoing life imprisonment.

Waste management network in states will save water: PM

RAJESH KUMAR THAKUR @ New Delhi

PRIME Minister Narendra Modi asserted that a wider network of waste management should be created in every state to ensure that none of the rivers or water bodies is polluted due to external factors. Addressing the country’s first All India Water Ministers’ Conference on ‘Water Vision’ via video-conferencing on Thursday from here, the PM asked the ministers to adopt innovative ways to educate the people on the importance of water conservation right from the schools to various societal levels.

“There is a need to let the Nextgen be educated and care about the water conservation and management,” said the PM, adding that India has adopted world’s first of its kind initiative for water management and conservation through a scheme called “Amrit Sarovar”.

He said that more than 25,000 Amrit Sarovars have so far been made in the country in a bid to educate the people on water conservation.

He said that 75 Amrit Sarovars are being created in every district and so far 25,000 Amrit Sarovars have been built. Underlining the significance of a mass participation for water conservation, the PM said that the governments’ attempts alone cannot be successful unless the people’s participations happen. The Prime Minister said the subject of water comes under the control of states under our constitutional system and it is their efforts that will go a long way in achieving the collective goals of the country. “Water Vision@2047 is an important dimension of the journey of Amrit Kaal for the next 25 years,” Modi said.

The maximum work under the MGNREGA scheme should be done on water, he said, calling for spreading awareness among people for its conservation.

Water is most consumed in sectors such as industry and farming, and awareness should be spread among them, he said while advocating crop diversity and natural farming.

Noting that success does not come from the efforts of the government alone, the Prime Minister drew attention to the role of public and social organisations and civil societies and asked for their maximum participation in campaigns related to water conservation.

He went on to explain that promoting public participation does not reduce the accountability of the government and does not mean putting all the responsibility on the people.

The biggest advantage of public participation is public awareness about efforts being put into a campaign and the money being spent, Modi said.

The all-India water ministers’ meet on the theme ‘Water Vision@2047’ brings together key policy makers to discuss “ways to harness water resources for sustainable development”, the government has said.

Centre stops all tourism activity in holy Jain site

PARVEZ SULTAN @ New Delhi

FOLLOWING intense protests by the Jain community, the Centre on Thursday stayed all tourism activity at the Parasnath Hill in Jharkhand, where their religious site, Sammed Shikharji, is located. The ministry of environment issued an office memorandum directing the state government to strictly enforce a ban on sale and consumption of liquor and non-vegetarian food at the hill.

Sammed Shikharji in Giridih district is one of the holiest sites for Jains. The community has been staging massive protesting in cities like Ahmedabad, Surat, Mumbai, Delhi and Bhopal against the decision to promote tourism there. In 2019, the Union ministry had notified an eco-sensitive zone around the Parasnath sanctuary and approved eco-tourism activities proposed the state government.

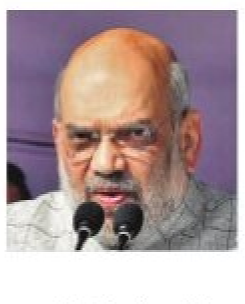
The Centre’s intervention came after Union environment minister Bhupender Yadav met a delegation of the community earlier in the day.

He assured them that “Prime Minister Narendra Modi is committed to preserving and protecting the rights of the Jain community over all their religious sites.”

Ram temple work to be over by Jan 2024: Shah

PRASANTA MAZUMDAR @ Guwahati

MAKING a big political pitch ahead of Assembly elections in some states this year and Lok Sabha elections next year, Union home minister Amit Shah on Thursday announced that the Ram temple in Ayodhya would be ready by January 1, 2024.



Shah made the announcement at a rally after flagging off the BJP’s eight-day-long Rath Yatra from Sabroom in Tripura, which is expected to go to polls along with Meghalaya and Nagaland in February.

“Rahul baba, listen it from Sabroom. Sabroom waalon (people of Sabroom), book your tickets. You will find the high-rise Ram temple ready in Ayodhya on January 1, 2024,” Shah declared.

“Since India attained Independence, the Congress hindered the construction of the temple. The matter went to a Sessions Court, High Court and the Supreme Court. When the Supreme Court verdict came one morning, Modiji (Prime Minister Narendra Modi) performed the bhumi pujan, followed by the construction,” Shah said.

11 Omicron sub-variants found in int’l travellers tested during 11 days

KAVITA BAJELI-DATT @ New Delhi

ELEVEN Omicron sub-variants were found during testing of international travellers between December 24 and January 3, and all these variants are already circulating in India, official sources said on Thursday.

Of the 19,227 international travellers tested during the period, 124 were found Covid-19 positive. All of them were put in isolation.

Officials said that of the 124 positive samples, genome sequencing results of 40 were received of which XBB, including XBB.1, was found in 14 samples and BF 7.4.1 in one sample. XBB, a recombinant strain of BA.2.75 and BA.2.10.1, has a significant growth advantage. It is the most prevalent variant in India.

Union Health Minister Mansukh Mandaviya has urged people not to panic unnecessarily but remain alert and follow the directives issued by the government.

The Centre has made random Covid-19 tests mandatory for two per cent of the international passengers, irrespective of their port of departure, since December 24.

From January 1, passengers arriving from hotspots countries like China, Hong Kong, Japan, South Korea, Singapore and Thailand are mandatorily required to provide Covid-negative reports.

The test has to be conducted not more than 72 hours prior to undertaking the journey to India and the negative report from the RT-PCR test has to be uploaded on the Air Suvidha portal before departure.

This will also apply to the passengers transiting through these six countries, irrespective of their originating nations, before arriving at any Indian airport.

India has already directed states and union territories to step up vigil, increase surveillance and focus on genome sequencing with the focus on identifying new variants that could lead to a surge in the country. The steps have been taken following a global surge, especially in neighbouring China, which is seeing an explosion in Covid-19 cases.

Meanwhile, India recorded 188 new coronavirus infections, while the active cases have declined to 2,554, according to Union health ministry data updated on Thursday.

The total tally of Covid cases has been recorded at 4,46,79,319 and the death toll stands at 5,30,710, with three deaths reconciled by Kerala, the data updated at 8 am stated.

The daily positivity has been recorded at 0.10 per cent while the weekly positivity has been pegged at 0.12 per cent, the ministry said.

The active cases comprise 0.01 per cent of the total infections, while the national recovery rate has increased to 98.80 per cent, according to the health ministry’s website.

India’s flagship health schemes to be displayed at series of G20 events

KAVITA BAJELI-DATT @ New Delhi

TRACKING health emergencies, preparedness and response, strengthening cooperation in the pharmaceutical sector and digital health innovation and solutions are the three priorities under health for India in the year-long G20 presidency, Union Health Minister Mansukh Mandaviya said on Thursday.

India’s successful management of the Covid-19 pandemic and the lessons learnt will also be a part of its presentations to the G20 health-working groups (HWGs). India will also showcase a slew of its successful health programmes and initiatives, including Ayushman Bharat and Jan Ausadhi, a programme to make generic drugs more accessible and digital health innovations, during the presidency.

“Prevention, preparedness and response to health emergencies, including initiatives like One Health and tackling antimicrobial resistance, have been priorities since the initiation of the HWGs (health-working group) in G20. They will continue to be so,” Mandaviya said. He said that the second priority would be cooperation between these countries in the pharmaceutical sector to ensure accessible, available and affordable medicines, vaccines and diagnostics. The third will be universal health coverage and improvement of health service delivery.

The Union minister said that India, as holding chair of the G20 presidency, aims to continue and consolidate health priorities and key takeaways from previous presidencies while highlighting critical areas that require strengthening.

Four meetings of the HWGs are slated over the next few months. The first meeting is in Thiruvananthapuram, which will take place between Jan 18-20, with a side event on medical value travel. The second meeting is in Goa, where the focus will be on digital health. This is scheduled for April 17 to 19. The third meeting is slated in Hyderabad between June 4-6.

It will also have a workshop on research to expand access to drugs, diagnostics and vaccines.

The fourth meeting, which will be the meeting of G20 health ministers, will take place in Gandhinagar in Gujarat. This event will also have side events on the Global Centre for Traditional Medicine and Medical Value Travel.

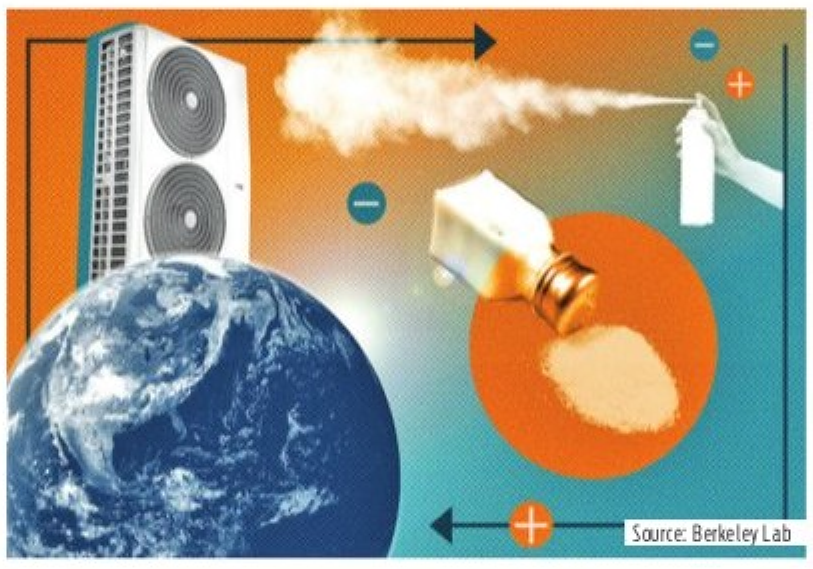
Jan Ausadhi scheme

Jan Ausadhi, renamed the Pradhan Mantri Bharatiya Jan Ausadhi Pariyojana, has the goal of making quality generic medicines available to all. There were 8,819 functional “jan ausadhi” stores selling 1,759 drugs and 280 surgical items till October 2022

GOOD HEALTH LINKED TO TRAVELLING

People who travel more outside of their local area feel they are healthier than those who stay closer to home, finds a new study led by University College of London researchers. They found how often people travel and the range of places visited are important, with those who regularly travel more than 24 km away from home more likely to report being in good health. Those who travel to a wider variety of places are more likely to make more friends and increase their social circles. This increase in social participation is linked to better health, the researchers found.

COOL NEW WAY FOR AIR-CONDITIONING SANS GENERATION OF HARMFUL GASES



Source: Berkeley Lab

Researchers have found a way to effectively heat or cool air by bypassing gases with high global warming potential as refrigerants — by using salt. Salt is known to change the time taken for ice to form. Researchers at the Department of Energy’s Lawrence Berkeley National Laboratory (Berkeley Lab) have applied this basic concept to develop a new method of heating and cooling. The technique, which they have named “ionocaloric cooling,” takes advantage of how energy, or heat, is stored or released when a material changes phase — such as changing from solid ice to liquid water. Melting a material absorbs heat from the surroundings, while solidifying it releases heat. The ionocaloric cycle causes this phase and temperature change through the flow of ions (electrically charged atoms or molecules) which come from a salt.

6G WIRELESS TECH FROM WASTE ENERGY USING HUMAN BODY?

Researchers at the University of Massachusetts Amherst use the body to harvest waste energy to power wearable devices. While benefits of the 5G wireless technology are just being reaped, researchers are already at work on 6G wireless tech. One of the most promising breakthroughs in 6G telecommunications is the possibility of Visible Light Communication, which is like a wireless version of fibre-optics. Now, a team of researchers at the University of Massachusetts Amherst has announced that they have invented a low-cost, innovative way to harvest the waste energy from VLC by using the human body as an antenna. This waste energy can be recycled to power an array of wearable devices, or even, perhaps, larger electronics.

Protests erupted after cracks surfaced in many houses and outside following 'land sinking', prompting the administration to shift the affected families to safer places

Protests, anger spill out in Joshimath

Chamoli district admin orders public sector units to build 2,000 prefabricated structures

NARENDRA SETHI @ Dehradun

THE sparsely populated town of Joshimath with around 25,000 people in Uttarakhand's Chamoli district is terrified following large cracks that have appeared in many dwelling units and outside due to 'land sinking.' The Chamoli district administration has ordered public sector NTPC and HCC to build 2,000 prefabricated structures as a precautionary measure to relocate the affected families.

Most wards of the town have reported such dangerous cracks, forcing angry residents to hit the streets. On Thursday, the local market remained shut amid shrill demands for safety and security.

A huge torch procession the previous day was preceded by a market shutdown on the call of Joshimath Bachao Sangharsh Samiti (JBSS). On behalf of the district administration, Joint Magistrate Deepak Saini and Deputy Superintendent of Police Pramod Shah continued to persuade people against taking the agitation path. However, JBSS chief Shailendra Panwar and convenor Atul Sati insisted on a written assurance on the closure of the NTPC project and the Helang-Marwari bypass with full arrangements for the rehabilitation of the affected families.

The administration is engaged on a war footing to provide all possible help to the families affected by landslides in Joshimath. These families have been accommodated in municipal, block, BKTC guest houses, GIC, Gurudwara, Inter College, ITI Tapovan, and other places. As many as 47 families from Joshimath Nagar area have been temporarily shifted.

Chamoli District Magistrate Himanshu Khurana said: "The situation is being reviewed around the clock. Senior officials are at hand along with their teams. The state Disaster Response Force, NDRF, police, and other security personnel have been put on alert against the looming disaster."

Construction work has come to a standstill for fear of land sinking. A vital road link where construction has continued includes the Helang bypass, constructed by the Border Roads Organisation (BRO). The NTPC has been working on the Tapovan Vishnugarh hydropower project. Then, there are other construction activities under the municipal corporation areas. The operation of the Joshimath-Auli ropeway has also been suspended indefinitely.

Leader of the Opposition Yashpal Arya cited locals' complaints about the "uncontrolled, short-sighted development" for the destruction of Joshimath.

"The tunnel constructed for NTPC's Tapovan Vishnugarh project has hollowed the ground from within. Even then the authorities have started constructing the bypass road. The excavations at the root of the town are shaking its foundation," said Arya.

In Maha investor meet, Yogi seeks to make 'New UP'

NAMITA BAJPAI @Lucknow

CM Yogi Adityanath called upon top industrialists, bankers, finance officials, film personalities and members of Uttar Pradesh diaspora to become partners in scripting the state's growth story in Mumbai on Thursday. His mission: "New UP" of "New India".

He urged them to contribute towards realising the goal of making the country an economy of '$ 5 trillion' by investing in Uttar Pradesh as the path to a prosperous and self-reliant India passed on through Uttar Pradesh. While concluding his two-day visit to the financial capital of India with a road show which witnessed the participation by the prominent business captains, bankers, representatives of the finance sector and other investors, Yogi extended them the invitation to attend the Global Investor Summit (GIS-23) in Lucknow on February 10-12.

Sharing the success of the roadshows, the CM claimed that it was the first time after independence that teams from UP visited 21 cities across 16 countries to invite investors and winning investment proposals worth more than ₹7 lakh crores during the roadshows.

He claimed that the state with the largest population in the country was working diligently day in and day out to fulfil its resolution of making UP 'one trillion dollar' economy for it had potential, vision and immense possibilities. During his road show, the UP CM discussed in detail about the investment possibilities across commercial, cultural, spiritual and social spectrum of UP with rich values, traditions and diversities.

"The new industrial policy provides a choice-based model, which encourages production, employment and exports. We have ensured that there is zero human intervention from the government level in the process of industrial projects through Nivesh Mitra and Nivesh Sarathi portals. After signing the MoU, the Chief Minister's Office directly monitors the progress of the project," said the CM.

BJP corners Ajit Pawar over Kondeo statue

Leader of Opposition and senior NCP leader Ajit Pawar, despite having a close relationship with deputy chief minister Devendra Fadnavis, is still BJP's target for a larger ideological reason. Pawar's previous action on removing Dadoji Kondeo statue from Lal Mahal at Pune has not gone down well with the RSS and its affiliated organisations. Pawar even set up a committee to probe whether Kondeo was Shivaji's Guru or not. His recent proximity with CM Eknath Shinde during the winter session did not go well with the BJP leadership. So, they raked up Sambhaji Maharaj issue against Pawar to corner him.

State Cong leaders show little interest

Rahul Gandhi's Bharat Jodo Yatra created a positive atmosphere for the Congress and even energised the party workers, but its leaders are still stagnant in Maharashtra. Gandhi, when he exited from Maharashtra for Madhya Pradesh, had asked Maharashtra Congress leaders to use this opportunity and reach out to the people by various hand to hand joining programs. However, no big leaders of the state Congress are interested in reaching out to the people on the ground and expanding the party base. With no meetings taking place, the lethargic party leaders were not in the mood to utilise the positive atmosphere. The energy created by yatra may evaporate soon.

'Govt not interested in conducting local polls'

In Maharashtra, the ruling establishment is not interested in calling the local body elections soon. As a result, the major corporations like BMC, Navi Mumbai, Aurangabad and Thane have got the IAS administrator as ruler. It is unfortunate to give a lot of power in the hands of executives when there are legislators available to call the elections. People who were aspiring to start their political career from the local level seem frustrated. Fed up of waiting for the elections, their resources for the elections are also exhausted. In Navi Mumbai Municipal Corporation, there is no elected body from the last 2.5 years, same is the situation in Aurangabad and Mumbai as well.

Didi: Stone-pelting at Vande Bharat happened in Bihar, not in Bengal

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ New Delhi

BARELY 24 hours after slamming the Centre on the issue of not helping to organise Gangasagar Mela, West Bengal chief minister Mamata Banerjee on Thursday lambasted the saffron camp, without mentioning names of its leaders, alleging the incident of stone pelting at Vande Bharat two days ago took place in Bihar, not in Bengal.

She also alleged the rake of the first superfast train in Bengal, which was flagged off by Prime Minister Narendra Modi last week virtually, was nothing but an old refurbished train with a new engine. A war of words erupted immediately as BJP's Amit Malviya said it is abundantly clear that Vande Bharat was targeted on her instruction.

"The incident of stone pelting did not take place in Bengal. It happened in Bihar. A section of people in Bihar may have discontent for not having the train service in the state but for that, we cannot accuse the entire state. Many are spreading fake news over the incident. We will take lawful action against them," she said while leaving Sagar island in South 24 Parganas after overseeing preparations for Gangasagar Mela. On Wednesday, she said the Centre helps to organise Kumbh Mela but has not given a single rupee to help the state for Gangasagar Mela.

Irked by 'Jai Shree Ram' slogan by some BJP supporters during the flagging off event of Vande Bharat, Mamata refused to share stage at Howrah on December 30 in the presence of railway minister. Referring to Bengal's first Vande Bharat, Mamata said, "It has nothing new. An old rake has been refurbished with a new engine. During my tenure as railway minister, Bengal used to get 100 new trains in a year but in past 11 years, the state has not got a single new one."

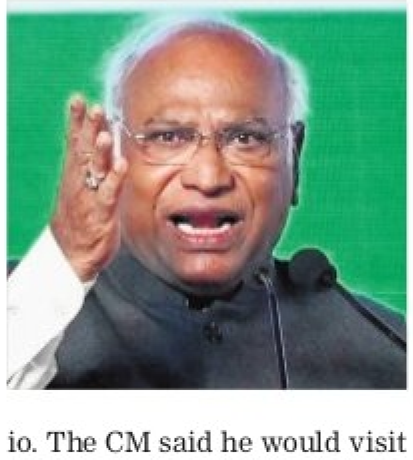
MEMBERS of the Hindu organisation Vishwa Hindu Parishad and Bajrang Dal on Wednesday forcibly entered a mall in Vastrapur area of Ahmedabad and tore up posters and other publicity material for the upcoming film "Pathaan" However, Filmmaker director Rahul Dholakia Who directed Shahrukh's Movie 'Raees' said, "This is not "protesting " it's called vandalism and hooliganism!"

Vastrapur police inspector J K Dangar said, "We rushed to the spot and detained five activists, they were released later," he said. In a Series of video shared by Bajrang Dal, North Gujarat president Jawalit Mehta can be seen shouting slogans and tearing posters and large cut-outs of Pathaan's star cast. Gujarat VHP spokesperson Hitendrasinh Rajput said, "We will not allow Pathaan's screening in Gujarat. Today's protest against the movie's release in Ahmedabad should be taken as a warning by all the theatre owners across the state. They must stay away from releasing the movie."

In Bihar yatra season, Kharge takes on PM & Nitish talks of Oppn unity

RAMASHANKAR @Patna



'WILL VISIT STATES TO FORM ALLIANCES'

Bihar CM Nitish Kumar began his 'Samadhan Yatra' from West Champaran district and will cover various districts. He said, "I will meet opposition leaders across the country in order to stitch an alliance that will challenge the BJP in the 2024 Lok Sabha election." He is in favour of taking Cong on board to forge a unity.

A winter chill gripping north India is hinting at prospects of a much-valued opposition huddle to attempt a fledgling unity among parties ahead of the Lok Sabha polls due 16 months from now. In Bihar, yatras are politically fashionable. On Thursday, Chief Minister Nitish Kumar was in West Champaran district, unveiling his future plans to bring opposition parties on a common platform. His Mahagathbandhan co-traveler Congress too had some plans, though only party-centric: party chief Mallikarjun Kharge today launched a 'padyatra' from Mandar Hill from Banka district.

The narrative was sulfurous anti-BJP flak. Kharge accused Prime Minister Narendra Modi of working against people's interests and expecting people to sing paeans to him "with an empty stomach."

"Modi ji asks what Congress has done in 70 years but he should know Jawaharlal Nehru worked for the growth of the country. On the other hand, you (Modi) are selling institutions," thundered Kharge. He went as far back as Bihar's first chief minister Sri Krishna Singh to credit him for the development of the state. A state Congress leader recalled Jagjivan Ram, a popular leader of the Nehru-Indira era, for probity in public life. "Today, there is hardly any leader of principles left in the country," he added. The party's Yatra will cover 1,200 km before concluding at the historic Gandhi Maidan in the state capital where Sonia Gandhi or her daughter Priyanka Gandhi Vadra will address a rally.

Nitish sought to present a wide-angle, prospective scenario. The CM said he would visit various states after the state assembly's budget session in his attempt to bring all opposition parties together months before the 2024 Lok Sabha election.

The CM began his 'Samadhan Yatra' from West Champaran district. His yatra will cover various districts and will review the implementation of various government schemes. "I will meet opposition leaders across the country in order to stitch an alliance that will challenge the BJP in the 2024 Lok Sabha election," he said.

Nitish is in favour of taking Congress on board to forge a stronger unity. Earlier, former Madhya Pradesh CM Kamal Nath had asserted that Rahul should head the opposition. Nitish has let it be known that he has no problem with that. Poll strategist Prashant Kishore is also on his 'Jan Suraj Yatra.'

NHAI says farm stir in Punjab has caused loss of ₹28 cr in last 3 weeks

HARPREET BAJWA @Chandigarh

THE National Highways Authority of India (NHAI) has written to the Punjab Government stating that it has suffered a loss of ₹28 crore due to protesting farmers on 13 toll plazas of NHAI in six districts of the state since December 15, 2022. NHAI also said that any further loss of revenue due to the agitation by the farmers' unions will affect the 'budget allocations' for new projects in the state. The protests are also affecting the maintenance of existing national highways.

Sources said that Alka Upadhyaya, Secretary of Union Ministry of Road Transport and Highways (MoRTH), has written a letter to the Punjab Government in which strict actions have been sought against the farmers' unions.

The central government officials have also informed the state government that these dharnas are against the provisions of the State Support Agreement between MoRTH and Punjab Government for NHAI projects to maintain law and order situation on the highways, including the toll plazas.

Out of the 18 toll plazas in nine districts of the state on which the farmers are protesting since December 15 against the AAP government, 13 are on national highways, which are managed by the NHAI (Amritsar, Tarn Taran, Jalandhar, Hoshiarpur, Ferozepur, and Barnala districts), and the remaining five are on state highways. Earlier, in a letter to the state government on December 16 last year, the NHAI had pointed out that if this issue is not resolved at the earliest, it will set a wrong precedent. It had also warned of the impacts on operations of new projects and upkeep of the existing national highways.

The protesting farmers are demanding minimum support price guarantee law for crops, wage hike for labourers under MGNREGA, guarantee for alternative crops to paddy, and punishment to the accused of the Bargari sacrilege and Behbal Kalan police firing cases.

MP mulls NSA against sellers of Chinese manjha

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ New Delhi

A day after a minor girl was injured after 'Chinese manjha' partially slashed her throat, the Shivraj Singh Chouhan government in Madhya Pradesh said it was contemplating invoking the National Security Act (NSA) against those caught selling the banned and highly dangerous Chinese Manjha.

"The illegal construction in the house belonging to a man accused of selling Chinese Manjha has already been bulldozed in Ujjain. It is a warning for those who want to sell the dangerous string during the Makar Sankranti festival (January 14). The authorities can act under the National Security Act (NSA) against those caught selling Chinese Manja in MP," said state's home minister Narottam Mishra.

Women outnumber men in MP's updated voter list for all seats

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ New Delhi

WOMEN have outsmarted men in getting their names added in the updated voter list for the year-end assembly polls in Madhya Pradesh. According to Chief Electoral Officer (CEO) of the state Anupam Rajan, the revised/updated voter list of voters for all 230 assembly constituencies was published at 64,100 polling centers in the state on Thursday.

The publication of this updated/revised list marked the culmination of brief revision of the voter list, which is a continued process annually. A total 18.82 lakh new voters were added to the list, while 5.68 lakh voters' names were deleted owing to shifting and deaths. This meant that over 13 lakh net new voters were added in the latest exercise of updating/revising the EPIC voter list in the state.

Importantly, in 41 out of the 52 districts, more female voters when compared to male voters were added in the updated list, owing to which the gender ratio of voters in the state improved from 926 to 931 women voters per 1000 men voters.

In as many as 18 assembly constituencies (all tribal reserved seats), including Dindori, Bichiya, Niwas, Mandla, Baihar, Paraswada, Balaghat, Waraseoni, Barghat, Pansemal, Alirajpur, Jobat, Jhabua, Thandla, Petlawad, Sardarpur, Kukshi and Sailana, total number of voters, included more women and less men. This means that if women vote as per their numbers, then they will be the decisive factor on these seats in the next assembly polls, to be held by the end of this year.

According to CEO MP, over the last 10 years, a maximum of 13 lakh-plus voters have been added in this latest exercise of updating of the voter list.

With this revision/updating of the voter list, the state now has a total over 5.39 crore-plus voters, including 2.79 crore-plus male voters and 2.60 crore-plus female voters. Out of the total voters, maximum 1.44 crore-plus voters are aged between 30-39 years, followed by 1.29 crore voters (aged between 20 and 39 years) and 1.06 crore voters (aged between 40-49 years), meaning that those aged between 20 years and 49 years formed over 70% of the state's present voter base.

Putin orders X'mas truce, Ukraine calls it hypocrisy

Ceasefire called for 36 hrs, from noon Friday to midnight Saturday

KYIV

RUSSIAN President Vladimir Putin on Thursday ordered Moscow's armed forces to observe a 36-hour cease-fire in Ukraine this weekend for the Russian Orthodox Christmas holiday.

Putin did not appear to make his cease-fire order conditional on a Ukrainian agreement to follow suit, and it wasn't clear whether hostilities would actually halt on the 1,100-kilometre front line. Ukrainian officials have previously dismissed Russian peace moves as playing for time to regroup their forces and prepare for additional attacks.

"Based on the fact that a large number of citizens professing Orthodoxy live in the combat areas, we call on the Ukrainian side to declare a cease-fire and give them the opportunity to attend services on Christmas Eve, as well as on the Day of the Nativity of Christ," as per Putin's order, addressed to Defense Minister Sergei Shoigu.

Putin acted at the suggestion of the head of the Russian Orthodox Church, Patriarch Kirill, who proposed a truce from noon Friday through midnight Saturday, local time. The Russian Orthodox Church, which uses the ancient Julian calendar, celebrates Christmas on January 7—later than the Gregorian calendar—although some Christians in Ukraine mark the holiday on that date.

However, Ukraine calls Russian ceasefire declaration 'hypocrisy.' Russia "must leave the occupied territories—only then will it have a 'temporary truce.' Keep hypocrisy to yourself," Ukrainian presidential adviser Mykhailo Podolyak said.

Meanwhile, Putin spoke by phone with Turkey's president on Thursday and the Kremlin said Putin "reaffirmed Russia's openness to a serious dialogue" with Ukrainian authorities.

Turkish President Recep Tayyip Erdogan urged Putin to implement a 'unilateral cease-fire.'

Erdogan also told Zelenskyy later that Turkey was ready to mediate a 'lasting peace.'

Russia's professed readiness came with the usual preconditions that "Kyiv authorities fulfill the well-known and repeatedly stated demands and recognise new territorial realities," the Kremlin said.

Elsewhere, French Defense Ministry said it plans talks soon with its Ukrainian counterpart on delivering armoured combat vehicles. France's presidency says it will be the first time this type of Western-made wheeled tank destroyer is sent to Ukraine. Agencies

No change in Putin's plan on Ukraine, says NATO

Head of NATO said he detected no change in Russia's stance on Ukraine, insisting that the Kremlin "wants a Europe where they can control a neighbouring country." "We have no indications that... Putin has changed his plans..." NATO Secretary General Jens Stoltenberg said in Oslo.

Kim unveiling daughter hints at extended family rule

SEOUL

NORTH Korean leader Kim Jong Un's disclosure of his daughter in recent public events was likely an attempt to show his people that one of his children would one day inherit his power in what would be the country's third hereditary power transfer, South Korea's spy service told lawmakers on Thursday.

State media called her Kim's 'most beloved child.'

In a closed-door Parliamentary committee meeting, the National Intelligence Service (NIS) said it assessed that by taking his daughter to public places, Kim aims to show North Koreans his resolve to hold another round of hereditary power transition, Yoo Sang-bum, one of the lawmakers who attended the private NIS briefing, told reporters.

Yoo cited the NIS as believing her public appearance—the first for any of Kim's children—doesn't necessarily mean she will succeed Kim.

South Korean media have said that Kim has three children—born in 2010, 2013 and 2017—and that the first child is a son while the third is a daughter.

During Thursday's briefing, the NIS also said former North Korean Foreign Minister Ri Yong Ho, who was involved in now-dormant nuclear diplomacy with the United States, has been purged, according to Youn Kun-young, another lawmaker who was at the meeting.

If confirmed, it would be the highest-profile such case by North Korea in recent years. In his earlier period of rule, Kim Jong Un engineered a spate of executions, purges and dismissals of senior officials, including the killing of his powerful uncle, in an apparent effort to solidify his grip on power.

Youn quoted the NIS as saying it has not yet found whether Ri Yong Ho was executed. Yoo said the spy agency didn't explain why Ri was purged. AP

No Covid test needed for travellers from China

Thailand authorities said on Thursday that travellers from China could enter the kingdom without pre-departure coronavirus tests, hoping their return would be a shot in the arm for the country's tourism sector recovery. "Thailand does not require Covid test results from tourists from any country," Public Health Minister Anutin Charnvirakul said. Tourism accounted for nearly 20% of national income before the pandemic, and tough border restrictions at the height of the health crisis took a toll on hotels, restaurants and tour operators across the country. "This is an opportunity to restore our economic situation and recover from losses we suffered for nearly three years," Anutin said. Tanes Petsuwan, deputy governor of the Tourism Authority of Thailand, said he expected about 60,000 Chinese nationals to enter Thailand this month

Mount Krakatau erupts fourth time in three days

Located in the Sunda Strait of Lampung, Mount Anak Krakatau erupted on Thursday producing ash around 907 metres above sea level. According to a report from the Center for Volcanology and Geological Hazard Mitigation, a column of gray ash of moderate to thick intensity was observed emerging from the mountain and heading northeast. The volcano has erupted four times in the past three days. Head of Mount Anak Krakatau monitoring post in Hargopancuran, Andi Suardi said, "One eruption was on January 3, twice on January 4 at 14.10 and 15.09 local time." People have been warned not to go near the volcano or conduct activities within a 5 km radius of its active crater. But many still went about their day as the government had not given any instructions regarding the increased activity of Mount Anak Krakatau

Deadlock deepens in US House as McCarthy fails to win votes

WASHINGTON

PRESSURE mounting, the speaker's chair of the US House sat empty for a third day on Thursday, as Republican leader Kevin McCarthy was failing in yet another excruciating ballot to win enough votes from his party to seize the chamber's gavel.

One of McCarthy's steadfast critics, Rep. Matt Gaetz of Florida, even cast his vote for Donald Trump, a symbolic gesture, but one that highlighted the former president's influence over the Republican Party.

But the final outcome on the seventh vote for speaker was turning out no differently than the others.

Despite endless talks, signs of concessions and a public spectacle unlike any other in recent political memory, the path ahead remained highly uncertain. The day started as the other two have, with Republican allies nominating him for now a seventh time to be speaker.

Republican John James of Michigan put McCarthy's name up for a vote, with a nod to history.

"My family's gone from being slaves to the floor of the United States House of Representatives" in five generations, said James, a newly elected lawmaker to be.

He said that while the House Republicans were 'stuck' at the moment, McCarthy, who has failed to seize a majority to become speaker, would ultimately win. Democrat Hakeem Jeffries of New York was re-nominated by Democrats.

Republican party holdouts again put forward the name of fellow Rep. Byron Donalds of Florida, assuring the stalemate that increasingly carried undercurrents of race and politics would continue.

What started as a political novelty, has devolved into a bitter Republican Party feud and deepening potential crisis.

McCarthy is under growing pressure from restless Republicans, and Democrats, to find the votes he needs or step aside, so the House can open fully and get on with the business of governing. AP

IMMIGRATION

US proposes massive hike in visa fees, H-1B included

WASHINGTON

THE Biden administration has proposed a massive hike in immigration fees, including the much sought-after H-1B visas for high-skilled foreign workers which is very popular among Indian tech professionals.

Under the proposed rule, published by the US Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS), the application for the H-1B visa increases from $460 to $780, and L-1 from $460 to $1,385. The application fee for O-1 visas has been proposed to increase from $460 to $1,055.

The H-1B visa is a non-immigrant visa that allows US firms to employ foreign workers in speciality occupations that require theoretical or technical expertise.

Technology companies depend on it to hire tens of thousands of employees each year from countries like India and China.

In its federal notification, the Department of Homeland Security (DHS) said that USCIS is primarily funded by fees charged to applicants and petitioners for immigration and naturalisation benefit requests. These fee collections fund the cost of fairly and efficiently adjudicating immigration benefit requests, including those provided without charge to refugees, asylum, and certain other applicants or petitioners, it argued.

The proposed rule went on a 60-day public opposition period, following which it is expected to be enforced. Under the proposed rule, the fee for the H-2B petitions (for seasonal, nonagricultural workers) is proposed to increase from $460 to $1,080.

"Economists would note that fee increase on these visa categories would work against the desire of US policymakers for more workers to enter the United States legally," Forbes said in a news report.

While there is no increase in the premium processing, the number of days is now 15 business days from the existing 15 days. PTI

Pak Army chief Munir visits Saudi Arabia, holds talks on defence ties

ISLAMABAD

PAKISTAN Army chief General Asim Munir on Thursday travelled to Saudi Arabia on his first official visit abroad where he met Saudi Defence Minister Prince Khalid bin Salman and discussed ways to strengthen bilateral ties, including in the defence sector.

They emphasised the strength and durability of bilateral relations between the two fraternal countries, state-run Saudi Press Agency reported. "They discussed military and defence cooperation, and ways to support and enhance them, in addition to discussing ...regional and international issues of common interest," it added.

The meeting was attended by the Chief of General Staff of Saudi Arabia, Lt Gen Fayyad bin Hamed Al-Ruwaili; Assistant Minister of Defence Eng. Talal bin Abdullah Al-Otaibi, and a number of Saudi and Pakistani military and civilian officials.

Later, Prince Khalid tweeted that he was 'pleased' to meet General Munir.

"We emphasised the strategic partnership between our brotherly countries, reviewed the bilateral military and defence relations and discussed ways of strengthening our cooperation," Prince Khalid tweeted.

Meanwhile, Finance Minister Ishaq Dar said on Wednesday that Saudi Arabia and China were set to beef up Pakistan's foreign exchange reserves much before the close of this month.

"Our foreign exchange reserves by end-June would be much better than you can think," Dar told reporters.

Pakistan and Saudi Arabia enjoy close military and economic ties and the kingdom has been providing critical support at the crucial hours. PTI

In a fresh attack on Gen (retd.) Qamar Javed Bajwa, Pakistan's ousted PM Imran Khan has alleged that the former army chief wanted to have him murdered and impose a state of emergency in the country. He made the startling allegation during an interview with private Bol News channel in Lahore.

HK TO START REOPENING BORDER WITH CHINA

Hong Kong will start to reopen its border with mainland China on Sunday and allow tens of thousands of people to cross from each side every day without quarantine

People visiting the border of Hong Kong with the skyline of China's Shenzhen | AP

EASING CURBS

Thursday's announcement came as China is easing some of the world's toughest anti-virus controls

From Sunday, China will also gradually increase the number of flights between Hong Kong and the mainland and scrap the limit on passenger numbers for flights from the city, the Chinese government said

> My personal inclination is, if factors permit, I want to allow a large number of people to go through because that has been the voice of a lot of people, both locally and overseas—wishing Hong Kong to proceed to normalcy as quickly as possible
>
> John Lee, Chief Executive

QUOTA SYSTEM

Under a quota system, up to 60,000 people can travel from Hong Kong to mainland China each day. The same cap is also imposed on the number of travelers entering the city from the north

But Hong Kong residents in China who want to return to the city are not bound by the quota system, and neither are Chinese residents in Hong Kong going north

RESUMING OPERATIONS

- During the first phase of the reopening, four border checkpoints that were closed for nearly three years will resume operations, bringing the number of checkpoints up and running in the city to seven. Currently, all but three checkpoints in Hong Kong are shut
- Travellers will have to obtain a negative Covid-19 test result within 48 hours before departure. Those crossing via designated land border checkpoints have to register online to secure a quota slot
- Also starting from Sunday, the mainland will no longer require inbound travellers to quarantine, marking a major step toward fully reopening travel with the rest of the world
- Mainland Chinese residents will be allowed to visit Hong Kong for sightseeing purposes in a gradual and orderly manner, depending on the city's capacity and pandemic situation, the Chinese government added

Harry alleges William knocked him to the floor

LONDON

PRINCE Harry alleges in a much-anticipated new memoir that his brother Prince William lashed out and physically attacked him during a furious argument over the brothers' deteriorating relationship, The Guardian reported.

The newspaper said it obtained an advance copy of the book, 'Spare,' due to be published next week.

It said Harry recounts a 2019 argument at his Kensington Palace home, in which he says William called Harry's wife, the former actress Meghan Markle, 'difficult,' 'rude' and 'abrasive.' Harry claims William grabbed his brother by the collar and ripped his necklace before knocking him down, the newspaper said.

"I landed on the dog's bowl, which cracked under my back, the pieces cutting into me," the book is quoted as saying. "I lay there for a moment, dazed, then got to my feet and told him to get out."

Harry says he had 'scrapes and bruises' as a result of the tussle. William later apologised, the extract says.

Separately, celebrity website Page Six reported that the book alleges William and his now-wife Kate encouraged Harry to wear a Nazi uniform to a costume party in 2005. Harry has repeatedly apologised and called the decision one of the biggest mistakes of his life.

Neither Buckingham Palace, which represents King Charles III, nor William's Kensington Palace office has commented on the claims.

The book, scheduled to be released on Tuesday, is the latest in a string of public revelations and accusations by Harry and Meghan that have shaken Britain's royal family.

Harry has recorded interviews with British broadcaster ITV and CBS in the US to promote the book. AP

Nepal PM intensifies talks with other parties ahead of trust vote

KATHMANDU

NEPAL'S PM Pushpa Kamal Dahal 'Prachanda' has intensified negotiations with other parties to secure the required majority votes ahead of a vote of confidence in Parliament next week.

The Prachanda-led coalition government requires at least 138 votes in the 275-member House of Representatives to survive the vote of confidence. Prachanda claims that he has the support of 169 lawmakers.

Prachanda held a meeting with former premier and CPN (Unified Socialist) Chairman Madhav Kumar Nepal to seek his support. The Madhav Nepal-led party has 10 seats in the House of Representatives (HoR).

During the meeting held at the Maoist Centre's Parliamentary Party office in Singha Durbar, Prachanda proposed to work together in the new government, MyRepublica newspaper reported on Thursday.

The PM requested the CPN (Unified Socialist) leader to cast votes in his favour during the confidence motion, the newspaper reported, citing Dahal's Personal Secretary Ramesh Malla.

However, Madhav Nepal did not give any words to the PM about his party's support to the new government. PTI

ECOMMERCE company Amazon will cut more jobs than it earlier said.

The company has made it official after one of its employees leaked the information externally that the number of job cuts has increased from 10,000 in November 2022 to 18,000 globally in January 2023.

The company will start communicating with impacted employees starting January 18.

Though the exact number of job cuts in India is not yet known, it is said many employees would be impacted as the company has shut down its three businesses in the country. Apart from closing its wholesale e-commerce website for neighbourhood stores, Amazon Distribution, it had shut down online learning platform 'Amazon Academy' and it discontinued pilot food delivery business Amazon Food in Bengaluru.

Earlier, it was reported that of its total 15.44 lakh employees globally (excluding contractors and temporary personnel), it would be laying off less than 1% of the workforce. Also, it was said the job cuts will be across its devices and books business. In November, it announced a voluntary reduction offer for some employees in its people, experience and technology (PXT) organisation.

In a note to employees, Amazon CEO Andy Jassy said this year's review has been more difficult given uncertain economy and that they hired rapidly over the past several years. Jassy said he had told in November that they were not done with the annual planning process and that there would be more role deductions in early 2023."Between the reductions we made in November and the ones we're sharing today, we plan to eliminate just over 18,000 roles. Several teams are impacted; however, the majority of role eliminations are in our Amazon Stores and PXT organisations," he said.

Amazon said it is working to support those who are affected and it is also providing packages that include a separation payment, transitional health insurance benefits, and external job placement support.

FEELING THE HEAT

- In November, Amazon had sent voluntary separation offers to some of its employees
- Earlier, it said 10,000 employees would be laid off
- Amazon has over 15.44 lakh employees globally
- In Q3,2022, its operating income fell to $2.5 billion as against $4.9 bn in year-ago period
- In FY22, Amazon India marketplace Amazon Seller Services' net loss stood at ₹3,649 cr, 23% lower than its previous loss in FY21

DGCA notice to Air India officials, crew

ARSHAD KHAN @ New Delhi

AVIATION regulator DGCA has slammed Air India's handling of the urination incident on its flights on November 26 and said it "appears to be unprofessional" and is "devoid of empathy". The regulator also said the Tata Group airline violated rules and its conduct led to a "systemic failure".

The Directorate General of Civil Aviation (DGCA) on Thursday issued show cause notices to accountable manager, director of in-flight Services, Air India and pilots and cabin crew members of that flight, in which it has asked why enforcement action shouldn't be taken against them for dereliction of their duties.

"The conduct of the concerned airline appears to be unprofessional and has led to a systemic failure. Prima facie it lacks appreciation of regulatory obligations as described in applicable Aircraft Rules 1937, Civil Aviation Requirements on 'Handling of Unruly Passengers', Cabin Safety Circular, Air India Operations Manual, Air India Safety and Emergency Procedure Manual and Air India Quick Reference Handbook and is devoid of empathy," DGCA said in a statement.

Meanwhile, the accused in this case has been reportedly identified as Shankar Mishra, vice-president of Wells Fargo India. Wells Fargo is a multinational financial services corporation headquartered in California, US. Mishra is said to be absconding as Delhi Police has issued a look-out notice against him. Air India, while responding to another DGCA query, said its staff had not complained to law enforcement about Mishra, who urinated on a senior female passenger on a New York-Delhi flight on November 26, as the aggrieved lady had rescinded an initial request for action after the two appeared to have sorted out the issue. This incident came into light after a letter written by the woman to Tata Group chairman N Chandrasekaran went viral. The letter states the traumatizing experience she had gone through and limited assistance she received from the cabin crew when the incident took place. The man had left the flight without facing any action from the airline.

CBI books HDIL promoters

New Delhi: CBI has booked HDIL promoters Rakesh Wadhawan and Sarang Wadhawan in a new bank fraud case involving an amount of ₹140 crore pertaining to their subsidiary Guruashish Construction, officials said on Thursday. The fresh action was initiated on a complaint from the Union Bank of India against the businessmen who are embroiled in a ₹4,300 crore Punjab and Maharashtra Cooperative (PMC) Bank scam case, they said. PTI

Microsoft Chairman Satya Nadella lauds idea of digital public goods

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @ Bengaluru

MICROSOFT Chairman and CEO Satya Nadella lauded the country's digital public goods and also highlighted how policies and the technology stack co-evolving and called it "tremendous".

In conversation with Infosys co-founder Nandan Nilekani at the Microsoft Future Ready Technology summit in Bengaluru on Thursday, Nadella said, "The idea that there is 'digital public goods' is great. There is some sort of new ways to use them to make it possible for every society and economy to be more inclusive."

He said what he learns every time he visits India is that the common man is able to use the greatest technology and do something that is useful to them, and "that it is not about tech for tech's sake and this is what India can contribute."

"The age of celebration of technology for technology's sake is over, it is about really thinking about technology and its use for everyone in the world, and that I think will be the greatest contribution," he added. Nilekani and Nadella lauded India Stack and Nilekani said from 1,000 start-ups in 2016, the number has grown to 90,000 now. Infosys co-founder said it is amazing to see the energy and the kind of innovation that is happening around digital public goods.

Speaking about AI-driven ChatGPT, which was launched by OpenAI (backed by Microsoft), Nadella said he asked the bot to list South Indian tiffin, and apart from idly, dosa, it also included biryani. Later, it apologised for suggesting biryani as a tiffin item. "It is fascinating to see how generative models are capturing the imagination. It is a reasoning engine we can use as frontline workers, as knowledge workers, as any professional doing any design task to have this be a co-pilot that helps us do whatever task we are setting out to do more creatively and productively.... I think it is a golden age," he said. Nadella, who is on a visit to India, met Prime Minister Narendra Modi in New Delhi.

OYO writes to NCLT to speed up probe on FHRAI

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @New Delhi

HOTEL booking platform OYO has requested the National Company Law Tribunal (NCLT) to expedite the Ministry of Corporate Affairs' (MCA) investigation on the functioning of hotel and restaurant body Federation of Hotel & Restaurant Associations of India (FHRAI).

OYO has pointed out that the present governing body members of the FHRAI are running a "deleterious and malicious agenda", aimed towards ruining the interest of hotel industry at large, and creating hurdles and bottlenecks for new players in the market, who are posing a stiff challenge to the self-serving agenda of certain members of the FHRAI with vested interest.

"It does not augur well for the business environment of our country when prominent start-ups, being universally acclaimed for their drive and innovation are the subject of such concerted and intimidatory tactics launched by the present committee of FHRAI, across multiple forums with the sole malicious intent to harm the hotel industry of the country, whose interest such organisations espouse," said OYO, in its letter to NCLT.

Recently the NCLT's Principal Bench, New Delhi, passed an order where it directed MCA to look into the affairs of FHRAI and examine if it conducts itself in a manner compliant with the provisions of Companies Act. Oyo and FHRAI have been at loggerhead for quite some time now. When contacted, FHRAI didn't respond to today's development.

SEBI nod for reclassification of govt stake in IDBI

MONIKA YADAV @New Delhi

IDBI Bank on Thursday said the Securities Exchange Board of India (Sebi) has relaxed the norm related to reclassifying the government's residual shareholding as public holding after privatisation.

However, the market regulator has set a condition that the voting rights of the government can't exceed 15% of the total voting rights of the bank. Besides this, the intention of the government to get its shareholding reclassified as public holding should be specified in the letter of offer dispatched to the shareholders of IDBI Bank in connection with the open offer made by the new acquirer.

"Further, the new acquirer has to ensure compliance with minimum public shareholding requirements within a period of one year from completion of offer in terms of the existing provisions of the SEBI regulations and the securities contract rules, 1997," the bank said in a statement quoting a Sebi letter.

Post strategic disinvestment, IDBI Bank will have to make an application to the stock exchanges for reclassification of the government's stake under the public category, the bank said. The regulator further directed the new acquirer to comply with the minimum public shareholding norms within one year of the sale, IDBI said.

SEBI relaxed the norms after finance ministry requested it to treat the government's residual shareholding as public stake and purely financial investment. The government, along with the Life Insurance Corporation of India, will offload 60.72% stake in IDBI Bank and the last date for submission of the expression of interest is January 7, 2023. The Centre and LIC together hold 94.72% stake in the bank.

The successful bidder will have to make an open offer for acquiring 5.28% public shareholding. Post, stake sale, the government will own 15% shares, while LIC will hold 34%.

The bidder will also have to compulsorily lock-in at least 40% of the equity capital for five years from the date of acquisition.

VIL equity conversion likely to take longer

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @New Delhi

THE equity conversion of debt-laden telecom operator Vodafone Idea Limited (VIL) could take more time as the government said discussion is going on in this regard.

Telecom minister Ashwini Vaishnaw on Thursday said, "Vodafone Idea has many requirements. It has a particular requirement of capital. How much capital, who will infuse ... all these things are under discussion at this point of time."

He added that the responsibility of capital infusion has to come from various sources. The company just doesn't require conversion, it requires capital and all those things are a complex issue.

Last year in January, the telco opted for converting about ₹16,000 crore of interest liability payable to the government into equity, which will amount to about 33% stake in the company, while promoters' holding will come down to 50% from 74.99%. Currently, the company is reeling under the debt burden of over ₹2 lakh crore. VIL has offered staked to the government at a par value of ₹10 a share and the latter is waiting for the company's shares to stabilise at ₹10 apiece.

On the launch of 5G services by state-owned Bharat Sanchar Nigam Limited (BSNL), the minister said the latest report suggests it will happen in 2024 now. For the past one year, BSNL and the minister maintained that the telco will unveil its 5G services by August 15, 2023. Vaishnaw also launched 5G services of Jio and Airtel in Odisha. "Entire Odisha will be covered by 5G services in two years. Today, 5G services have been launched in Bhubaneswar and Cuttack," he added. Vaishnaw said the Modi government has allocated ₹5,600 crore for strengthening the telecom connectivity in the state.

BANK KYC UPDATE

Branch visit not must to update KYC info: RBI

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @ Mumbai

BANK customers will not be required to visit branch to update their Know Your Customer (KYC) information.

Customers can provide a self-declaration through online channels, said the Reserve Bank of India (RBI) on Thursday.

"If there is no change in KYC information, a self-declaration to that effect from the individual customer is sufficient to complete the re-KYC process," said RBI.

"The banks have been advised to provide facility of such self-declaration to the individual customers through various non-face-to-face channels such as registered email-id, registered mobile number, ATMs, digital channels (such as online banking/internet banking, mobile application), letter, etc., without need for a visit to bank branch," it added.

Retail auto sales fall in December, face near-term headwinds: FADA

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @ New Delhi

RETAIL automobile sales in India fell 5% year-on-year in December 2022 to 16.22 units after logging high growth in the festive and wedding heavy months of October and November, according to data issued by FADA on Thursday.

On month-on-month basis, the fall in December 2022 sales is much steeper at 32% as total retail auto sales had stood 23.80 lakh units in November 2022

Total auto sales stood at 16.22 lakh in December 2022 as against 17.14 lakh in December 2021, 20.57 lakh units in December 2020 and 18.41 lakh units in December 2019.

FADA President Manish Raj Singhania said, "Month of December went into a lull after two super months of October and November, which witnessed adrenaline rush in the entire auto industry. While all other categories were in green, it was the two-wheeler segment which once again dragged total sales by falling 11%. Three-wheeler, PV, tractor and CV during the same period showed growth of 42%, 8%, 5% and 11%, respectively." The two-wheeler market, impacted by steep rise in ownership cost and distress in the rural economy, is yet to breach the pre-covid level. While total vehicle retail sales in calendar year (CY) 2022 grew 15% YoY and 17% compared to CY20, it failed to surpass CY19 retails, (a pre-covid year) and registered a 10% fall.

Poonawalla Fincorp disbursements rise 116% to ₹3,980 crore in third quarter

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @Mumbai

POONAWALLA FINCORP on Thursday said its total disbursements at consolidated level increased 116% to ₹3,980 crore in the third quarter compared to same quarter in 2021.

On a standalone basis, the company's total disbursement during Q3FY23 was up 8% and stood at nearly ₹3,370 crore against Q2FY23 disbursement of ₹3,110 crore.

The consolidated AUM grew by 28% year-on-year and 5% quarter-on-quarter to nearly ₹19,550 crore as of December 31, 2022, despite sharp reduction in discontinued loan book , said the company in a filing to the BSE.

The company, on December 14, announced the sale of its housing subsidiary Poonawalla Housing Finance to TPG (Perseus SG Pte. Ltd., an entity affiliated with TPG Global, LLC) at a valuation of ₹3,900 crore, subject to regulatory approvals. The transaction aims at maximising the shareholders' value in the long term as Poonawalla Fincorp (standalone) will continue to focus on building a Tech-Led and Digital-First financial services company, with leadership in consumer & MSME financing.

During the third quarter, we continued our strong growth momentum by achieving highest ever quarterly disbursement through 100% organic route.

Rupee rises 32 paise to close at 82.5 against USD

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @ Mumbai

SHOWING a strong comeback against US dollar, rupee strengthened 32 paise on Thursday helped by weakness in greenback in global markets and low crude oil prices.

At the interbank foreign exchange market, the local unit opened at 82.75 against US dollar and touched an intraday high of 82.50 and a low of 82.80 against the greenback. It finally ended at 82.50, registeing a rise of 32 paise over its previous close.

The dollar index, which gauges the greenback's strength against a basket of six currencies, fell 0.06% to 104.18.

The Indian rupee suffered a sharp fall of 11% last year, making it the worst-performing Asian currency. During the last year, the rupee weakened from 74.46 to 82.71 against US dollar. However, the current year could be different for the Indian currency. The rupee is expected to see recovery in 2023 supported by lower import bill due to subdued crude oil prices, bright growth prospects of Indian economy and high foreign exchange reserves.

"The rupee is likely to face resistance near 84 level and strengthen back to 78 levels in coming months as the Indian economy is in better shape compared to its peers and will be able to withstand any external headwinds," said Pankaj Pandey, head of research, ICICI Direct. "Relatively high forex reserves should provide a cushion in the event of a global economic slowdown. On top of this, softening crude oil prices will lower import bills. Also, lower growth prospects in other economies are expected to drive FII inflows in India," he added.

India's significant foreign exchange reserves, which provide more than eight months of import cover, should provide room for the central bank to intervene in the forex markets, if required. As per the RBI data, India's forex reserves reached $ 562.808 billion as of December 23, 2022. Higher reserves will provide a cushion in the event of a global economic slowdown and ballooning current account deficit.

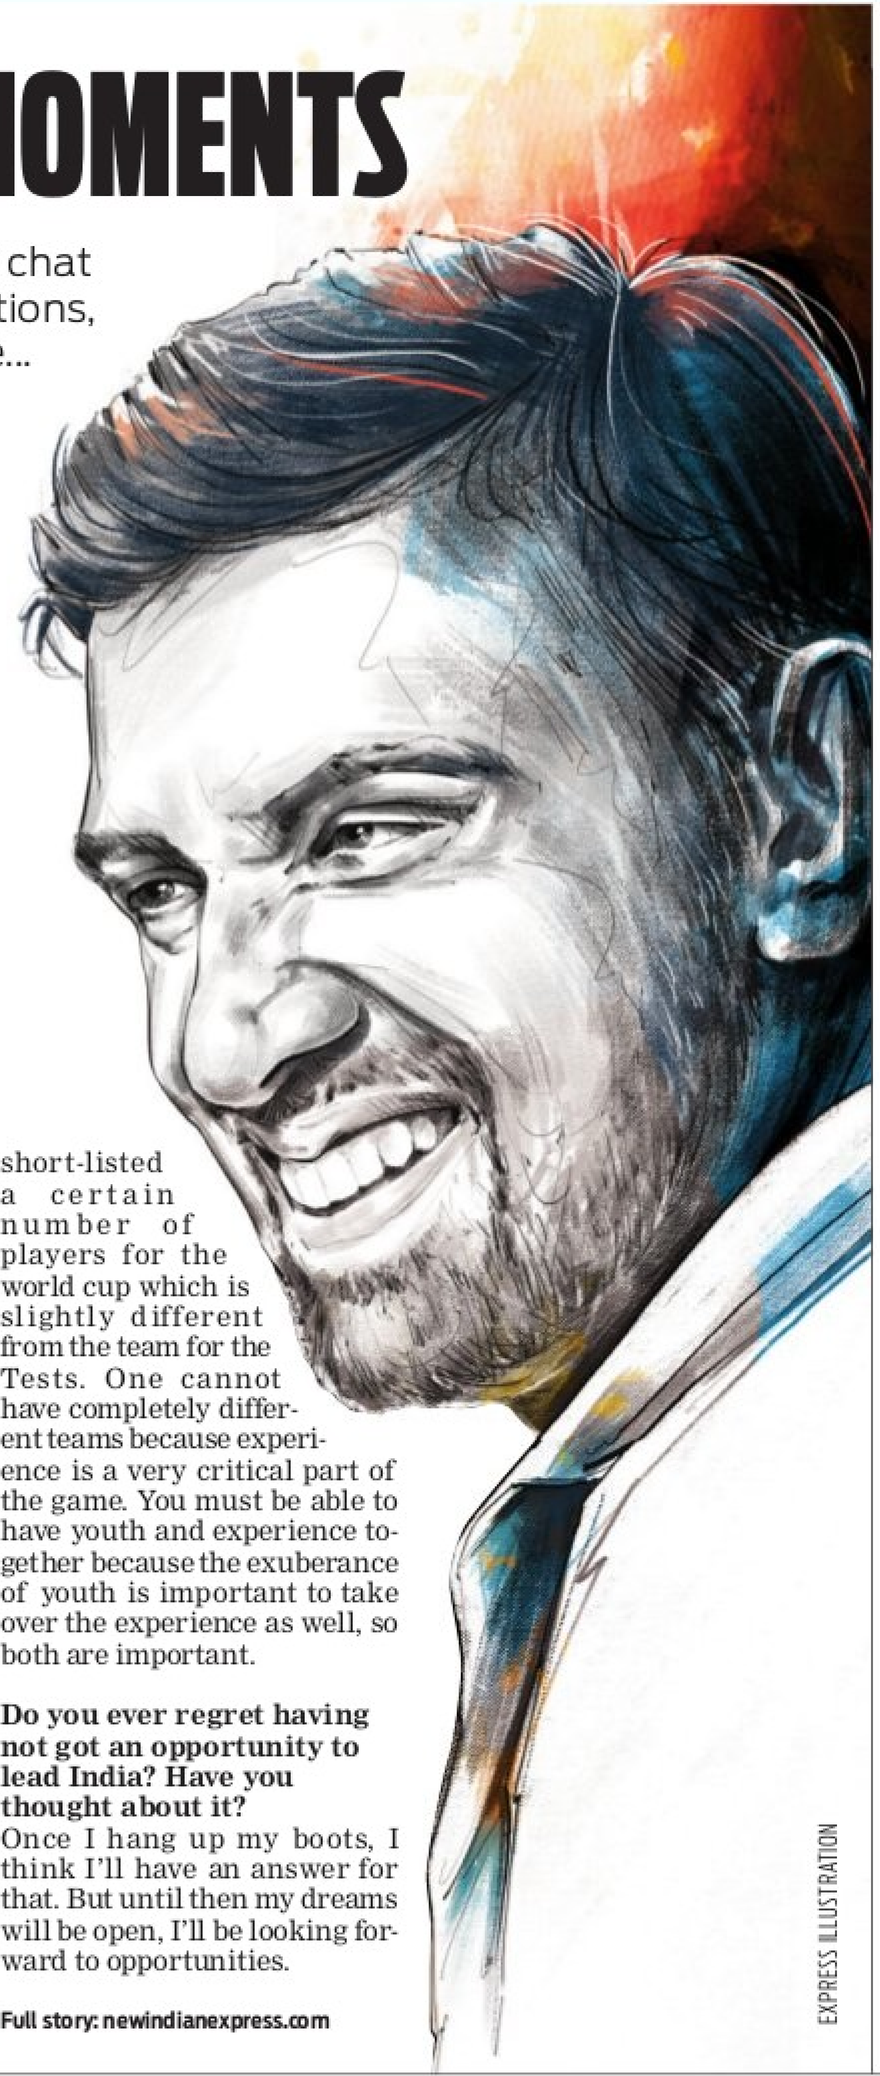
THE NEW INDIAN EXPRESS
SPORT

Former Oz captain Belinda statue unveiled at SCG

Former Australia captain Belinda Clark on Thursday became the first woman cricketer to have a sculpture unveiled in her honour. The World Cup-winning captain, prolific run scorer and key figure in the off-field development of the sport was immortalised in bronze outside the Sydney Cricket Ground.

I LIVE FOR BIG & PRESSURE MOMENTS

Preparing for the next challenge at his academy, R Ashwin, in a candid chat with Ashok Venugopal, opens up about his fitness, handling expectations, his quest to be the best, taking up additional responsibilities and more...



EXPRESS ILLUSTRATION

On maintaining his fitness over the years

The training methods, physiotherapy and recovery methods are really much better from the time I started playing cricket. So, I think it is really helpful for professionals like us to keep fit. Most importantly I want to be as excellent as I can be. You know there is a certain benchmark that people like to set in their career. Even at this stage of my career, I want to keep that benchmark going. This year I was supposed to play the Ranji Trophy, but what happened was I played the games in Bangladesh and when I came back I had to look after my niggles a little bit. I have just taken a small break and I'm putting myself through a four-week programme where I'm strengthening my entire body.

On preparations for the Border-Gavaskar Trophy

I have started my training. I have been dreaming (about the series) and I've been doing some yoga. I've been religiously doing yoga over the last year or so. I think it's just helped me feel much better. (As for the skills) I've definitely put in a lot of work on my batting. My batting has really been upscale over the last 18 months or so. I put in a lot of work whenever a home series happens. I'm expecting (Ravindra) Jadeja to come through (be fit in time) but I like expanding more angles. I got some things in my head. I've been watching Australia play in Australia. I'd like to be working on some different angles, something new.

On what he expects from the high-profile series

Whenever Australia come to India, they have done really well. Even the last Border-Gavaskar Trophy (2017), in my opinion, was one of the best series that we played. And we also went back there and again managed to retain the trophy. An India-Australia is always exciting. I don't expect anything less than high voltage cricket. And I expect a lot of intensity. Australia and England are the best prepared teams that come to India. Australia take it one notch higher. They played really well last year. I'm really looking forward to an exciting series.

With the extra pressure of WTC final qualification, will there be more responsibility on you?

I think I'm well past the stage where I say I'm taking so much responsibility or getting pressurized or bogged down by all these things. I mean, we should also be able to share our workload and lean on our teammates to do the job. We've got a quality set up that, I expect, will help us deliver. I would be walking in with some extraordinary cricketers by my side, so that clearly must ease some pressure from my perspective.

On handling expectations of doing well at home

When you play for India, expectations are going to be there. You're bound to have expectations. But you can't allow that to bog yourself down. You know, I am someone who lives for the big moments and pressure moments. So for me, anytime there is a big match, any time there's a lot of pressure I really enjoy it. So, I'm looking forward to the pressure.

You are now the most successful all-rounder after Kapil Dev. Did you expect to come this far at the start of your career?

I don't want to sound too humble or too skeptical. But when you do something in your life, you want to be the best at what you want to do, right? Kapil Dev is not just a great Indian cricketer, but is one of the greatest cricketers the world has seen. And if you take up the bat and the ball, I suggest, any child, any kid that is taking the ball or the bat today must be aspiring to be the best in the world. It doesn't matter who's done it in the past, you have to want to be the best in the world.

On whether it is viable to field different teams for different formats

We need to be looking at how tight our schedules and fixtures are. I think, as a start, we have a completely new-look team for the Sri Lanka series. The Board has also recently short-listed a certain number of players for the world cup which is slightly different from the team for the Tests. One cannot have completely different teams because experience is a very critical part of the game. You must be able to have youth and experience together because the exuberance of youth is important to take over the experience as well, so both are important.

Do you ever regret having not got an opportunity to lead India? Have you thought about it?

Once I hang up my boots, I think I'll have an answer for that. But until then my dreams will be open, I'll be looking forward to opportunities.

> Once I hang up my boots, I think I'll have an answer for that. But until then my dreams will be open, I'll be looking forward to opportunities.

Skipper Dasun Shanaka smashed a quick unbeaten knock of 56 off 22 balls | AFP

Shanaka shines for Sri Lanka in Pune

GOMESH S @Chennai

IT is never easy being a finisher in the T20 format. Especially if you are an all-rounder who bowls a bit and not a frontline option. And you are playing for a team that has a lot of all-round potential, it pushes the limits of a player from time to time. What more, you are also the captain of that team. To be precise, imagine being Dasun Shanaka of Sri Lanka, a team that lacks consistency at times too.

It is not easy to be Shanaka. To play the role he plays for his team. It is hard to constantly produce numbers. Batting between 4 to 6 in the shortest format with a batting line-up — that looks incredible when it comes good and fails spectacularly when it crumbles — Shanaka arguably has the toughest role as a captain among the top T20 teams. But he doesn't seem to get bogged down by it. In fact, it is the extra responsibility that seems elevates his performance.

The all-rounder strikes at an incredible 132.19 in T20Is as captain in comparison to 107.42 as non-captain. And in the last year or so, he has gotten only better. Shanaka's T20I strike rate has gone up to 144.09 since. But often playing a rescue role for his side, as he did against India in Mumbai in the first T20I, the numbers don't necessarily translate into results. Thursday, though, was different. Having gotten a good start from Kusal Mendis, Shanaka stepped up again, smashing an unbeaten 22-ball 56 as the Lankan skipper took apart the hosts' young bowling attack. Without his swashbuckling knock that featured six big hits over the ropes, the tourists would not have gotten to 206/6 in a must-win game. One would have seen that as a job well done.

But with Shanaka, it never is the case. When Axar Patel threatened to take India home in the final over where the hosts needed 21 runs, the skipper came to the fore again. In his first over of the tour, he conceded just four runs for two wickets, securing a 16-run win. From the outset, it would seem like an impossible job to do. For Shanaka, it was just another day at the office.

Brief scores: Sri Lanka 206/6 in 20 ovs (Kusal 52, Shanaka 56 n.o; Umran 3/48) bt India 190/8 in 20 ovs (Axar 65, Suryakumar 51; Rajitha 2/22).

FIH ODISHA HOCKEY MEN'S WORLD CUP 2023 BHUBANESWAR · ROURKELA

TEAM TRACKER

JAN 13-29, 2023 | 16 NATIONS, ONE DREAM

With the men's field hockey World Cup beginning in Rourkela and Bhubaneswar on January 13, here's a brief look at the teams that will be in action. Rounding the Pool A teams, here's a look at Australia and South Africa...

Australia		South Africa
92	MATCHES PLAYED	38
69	WON	6
Champs 1986, 2010, and 2014	BEST RESULT	10th

Australia		South Africa
It's been a strange old time for the team. They remain one of the best teams but they have been devoid of game time. They opted out of the ongoing Pro League, the juniors withdrew from the last World Cup. Yet, they showed their level at the CWG and repeated it against India in a Test series last month. Will be one of the favourites.	BACKGROUND	An upwardly mobile side who have been jumping through several obstacle courses to make their presence count on the international stage. Even if field hockey is below the likes of rugby, cricket and football, the sport enjoys a massive presence in schools. They are comfortably the best in Africa and qualified with ease.
DRIVEN BY DESIRE The top dogs of hockey have sort of forgotten how to win the big titles. No global gold in eight years is their worst run this century. It's the sort of thing the team will be desperate to overturn even if they will outwardly maintain their stance of taking it 'one match at a time'.		BIG WINS They are a very athletic unit and play an ultra physical brand of hockey. At the 2020 Games, they beat Germany for one of their biggest wins ever. At home in the Nations Cup last month, they reached the semifinals. Even if they face financial barriers, they are a fun team to watch.
It's a team that screams quality in all areas of the pitch. With many familiar players, it's tough to single out a few but the likes of Eddie Ockenden, capped a record 402 caps, and Andrew Charter, the ace custodian, will keep the team in good stead with their experience.	BIG STARS TO WATCH OUT FOR	There is a lot of hype about their captain, 24-year-old Dayaan Cassiem. He was adjudged the best player at the Nations Cup. The squad itself may not have the caps to match other sides – 18 of the other 20 have fewer than 100 caps – but their youthful exuberance is their biggest plus.

Delhi stare at relegation after big loss

AGENCIES @Rajkot

DELHI suffered an innings and 214-run defeat at the hands of Saurashtra inside three days as the hosts earned a bonus point in a Ranji Trophy Group B match on Thursday.

The heavy loss also meant the Delhi & Districts Cricket Association (DDCA) sacked the senior selection committee comprising former national selector Gagan Khoda, Mayank Sidhana and Anil Bhardwaj.

With Saurashtra, led by seam bowler Jaydev Unadkat, finally declaring the innings at 574/8, the visitors were left chasing a mountain of runs — 441, to be precise — to make the hosts bat again. Delhi's spineless batting, which managed just 133 runs in the first innings, did come up with a slightly better display in the second essay but it was not enough given the enormity of the task.

Delhi are staring at Ranji relegation, having so far earned just two points from four games. With three more rounds to go avoiding relegation would be a tall order for Yash Dhull's side.

Karnataka take lead

Bengaluru: SJ Nikin Jose's 67-run knock played a huge role in Karnataka securing the first innings lead on the third day of their Group C match against Chhattisgarh here on Thursday. Resuming at the overnight 202 for 1, Karnataka skipper Mayank Agarwal fell to Sumit Ruikar for 117, adding only 15 runs to his score.

There was a period when the visiting team bounced back strongly and kept the scoring in check. The highly-rated 22-year old Jose (134 balls) then got together with K Gowtham (18) for a 33-run stand for the seventh wicket to take Karnataka past the opponent's first innings score of 311.

Balaji-Jeevan shocks No. 2 seed, storms into semifinals

AGENCIES @Pune

INDIAN pair of N. Sriram Balaji and Jeevan Nedunchezhiyan pulled off one of the major upsets of the fifth edition of the Tata Open Maharashtra, beating the No. 2 seed American duo of Jackson Withrow and Nathaniel Lammons 7-6 (6), 7-6 (5) in the quarterfinals in Pune on Thursday.

Meanwhile, India's Ramkumar Ramanathan, along with Miguel Angel Reyes-Varela, suffered a 2-6, 1-6 loss against the top-seeded pair of Rajeev Ram and Joe Salisbury in the other quarterfinal. Earlier, the 2014 US Open champion Marin Cilic pulled out of the event after suffering a knee injury.

Kane helps Tottenham win 4-0

AP @London

WITH two classic centre forward's finishes, Harry Kane showed he is not suffering any lasting effects from his World Cup disappointment with England. It's now three goals in three Premier League games for Tottenham since returning from Qatar after his double in a 4-0 win over Crystal Palace late on Wednesday. Kane has had to shoulder the burden of missing a late penalty in England's 2-1 loss to France in the quarterfinals on December 10.

At the other end of the standings, Southampton is two points adrift in last place after a 1-0 home loss against Nottingham Forest, which moved out of the relegation zone. Results: Southampton 0-1 Nottingham Forest, Leeds 2-2 West Ham, Aston Villa 1-1 Wolves, Tottenham 4-0 Crystal Palace.

SYDNEY: Usman Khawaja made his highest Test score, Steve Smith scored a milestone ton and Australia reached a huge 475/4 on the second day of the third Test against South Africa. Khawaja made an unbeaten 195 while Steve Smith became Australia fourth-highest run scorer in Tests. Brief scores: Aus 475/4 (Khawaja 195 n.o, Smith 104) vs SA.

Asia Cup in Sept but venue not announced

NEW DELHI: The Asian Cricket Council on Thursday said that the Asia Cup, to be played in 50-over format, will be held in September, though the itinerary and the host country have not been announced yet. Pakistan is the original host but the BCCI is not keen on playing there owing to political tension between the two countries.

Four evasion cases, bridge player in NADA's ADDP list

INDRANEEL DAS @Chennai

Not always do we hear about three wrestlers evading dope tests and a bridge player testing positive for banned substances. The updated list of National Anti-Doping Agency's anti-doping disciplinary panel has revealed that bridge player Arvind Vaidya tested positive for diuretics/masking agents Chlortalidone, which is used to treat high blood pressure. He has been suspended for two years as per World Anti-Doping Agency Code. The list has added 16 athletes from various sports.

What seems intriguing is the evasion of dope tests by wrestlers. According to the ADDP list, three wrestlers evaded tests and were suspended for four years under WADA article 2.3. Grapplers Ayush, Kritika Jamwal and Gurmeet Singh are the perpetrators and going by the ADDP dates they had evaded testing on the same day. According to the 2.3 rule of WADA, "Refusing, or failing without compelling justification, to submit to Sample collection after notification as authorized in applicable anti-doping rules or otherwise evading Sample collection." The Wrestling Federation of India has recently said that it will be strict against doping and even formulated a plan to track dope cheats during competitions.

The wrestlers were not alone. Another case of evasion was by a kabaddi player Ankit Beniwal, who was slapped a four-year ban. What could be embarrassing for the Athletics Federation of India, is that five more athletes have tested positive for banned substances. Young long distance runners Harendra Kumar and Amit Jangir have failed dope tests. Harendra has tested positive for Darbepoetin (DEPO), a drug that's use has been on the rise of late in the country. He has been handed a four-year ban. Amit returned positive for morphine and has been banned for two years. Three other athletes who tested positive are Arif Ali (Higenamine — stimulant), Ashish Kumar (Furosemide — diuretic) and Aveesh Kumar Prithvi Pal (Toremifene/SERM). They have been banned for two years by the disciplinary panel.

There are three powerlifters — Abhijeet Gurav, Sachin Betkar, Kiran Devidas Sanas – who tested positive for the same steroid (stanozolol), while powerlifter Mamta Devi tested positive for cocktail of drugs — Mephentermine/Trenbolone/Drostanolone. All four have been banned for four years.
